LOCAL NEWS

NOVELTY SHOWER
Miss Blanch Kelly was given a novelty shower last evening at the home of Miss Bowes, Coburg street. Miss Kelly will be a principal in a happy event to take place early in June.

JOINS SIEGE BATTERY.
Willard M. Morrison of East St. John has left the staff of the Royal Bank and enlisted with the 9th Siege Battery on the west side. He has been very popular with the customers of the Royal Bank. Many friends will wish him all success while with the colors in the great work "over there."

GRAND LAKE STEAMER.
The steamer Premier, which is to go on the Grand Lake route, is expected to make her first trip of the season on next Saturday morning, although an endeavor will be made to get away earlier if possible. She is now in good condition, having undergone considerable repairs and alterations.

NEW OFFICE ARRANGEMENTS.
Plans are being prepared for a rearrangement of some of the offices at city hall. One of the most pressing needs is for an ante-room for the mayor's office, and it is probable that this will be secured by taking the office formerly occupied by Commissioner Russell. The new mayor's office may be located in the large room now used as the common clerk's outer office.

THE SPRING FRESHET.
Signs of the spring freshet are much in evidence at the foot of Indian town. All the wharves are submerged and the water is within a few feet of the street railway tracks. The lower end of bridge street is completely under water and several sheds are flooded. It is expected that the freshet will equal if not surpass the mark reached in former years.

PRESENTATIONS.
At a meeting of No. 2 Salvage Corps held last evening the members presented to ex-Captain John H. Thornton a beautiful gold headed cane. They also made James Hatfield the recipient of a purse of gold. The letter was employed in the corps as a driver for the last sixteen years. The presentations were made by Captain R. L. Cunningham. Both recipients made suitable replies in which they thanked their friends for their kind remembrances.

FIRST CASE HERE UNDER THE ANTI-LOAFING LAW

"This is was time. If a man won't work he shan't eat," said Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning when the first man under the new anti-loafing law was brought up in the person of James Thompson, trained blacksmith, of West St. John, who, according to Sergeant Journey of the police force, refused to work and persisted in loafing around the streets. According to the evidence the fact came out that Mrs. Thompson acted as janitor in the Bank of Nova Scotia. The defendant was remanded to jail for the present.
John Nickerson was charged with obtaining money under false pretences. Some of the men of the Soldiers' Convalescent Home, it was said, gave him $23 with which to buy liquor and it was said he failed to return. U. J. Sweeney appeared for him and he was remanded until witnesses could be procured.
A case of aggravated assault was brought up but the complainant failed to appear this morning so that the case was postponed. A plea of self-defense was put in.
One prisoner was charged with drunkenness. He pleaded guilty and was remanded.
Robert Orr was charged by Policeman Cooper with interfering with the police in the arrest of a soldier on Sunday afternoon in Erin street. According to the policeman Orr stood in the crowd and kept crying, "You're ill-using the man; let him up." This, it was said, had the effect of inciting the prisoner to further violence. Orr was remanded.
Laurence Pemberton and Robert Stafford, soldiers, and Frank Phalen were up on the charge of breaking into Michael J. Driscoll's tailor shop on May 6. Mr. Driscoll identified four bottles of stolen remover. The prisoners were again remanded.

ST. JOHN SOLDIER DIES IN MOORE BARRACKS

James Alfred Nichols Succumbs to Diphtheria At Shorncliffe

Miss Jennie Nichols, 179 Prince William street, this morning received the sad news that her son, Gunner Alfred Nichols, had died of diphtheria in Moore Barracks Hospital, Shorncliffe, England. Gunner Alfred Nichols enlisted with the 5th Battery at Halifax in January, 1917, and went overseas in April, 1917. On account of his youth he was not allowed to go to France, but was detained in England on home guard. He made several attempts to go to France afterwards but military authorities would not consent. The last letter received from him was written on April 15, 1918. He had then been raised as a 1 and was going to France. Unfortunately he was quarantined with the result that death intervened. He leaves his mother and one brother, Burton Kenneth, attached to headquarters staff in this city.

GOOD START IN FAIRVILLE

The Earn and Give campaign among boys for Y. M. C. A. funds was given a good start last evening in Fairville when boys of the teen age from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches met in the vestry of the latter church for organization. Rev. Mr. Archibald, provincial organizer, was present, as well as Reverends W. P. Dunham and W. McE. Townsend. Geo. Estey acted as chairman and introduced Rev. Mr. Archibald, who explained the plans. William Baxter, Addington Baxter, Stanley Ross and Arthur Nelson signed pledge cards and received buttons. Five other boys took cards home to consult their parents.

By a unanimous vote George Estey, who was largely responsible for last evening's meeting, was elected chairman of Fairville district, and under his direction brisk recruiting will now take place.

WINS HIGH HONOR.
Miss Georgie Melvin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Melvin, of this city, has been elected by the faculty to the fellowship in philosophy in Bryn Mawr College, Penn., for the next collegiate year. This is a very high honor in scholarship, as Bryn Mawr is one of the foremost colleges in the United States, and a fellowship one of the highest honors attainable. Miss Melvin graduated B. A. in arts with first class honors from McGill University, in 1917, and has since been doing post-graduate work at Bryn Mawr.

The unfortunate fact that quite frequently advertisements have to be omitted from The Times or account of late copy, prompts this S. O. S. call, and really your own best interests would demand that it be heeded.

REV. A. J. O'NEILL NEW CARLETON PASTOR

Silver Falls Priest Goes to Church of the Assumption in Succession to Father O'Donovan

Rev. A. J. O'Neill, M. A., pastor of St. Joachim's church, Silver Falls, has been appointed successor to the late Rev. J. J. O'Donovan and will assume his new duties in the Church of the Assumption, Carleton, next week. Father O'Neill received official notification of his appointment from His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc last evening.

Father O'Neill is a native of this city and is well known as a speaker and writer. Many contributions from his pen have appeared in literary journals. He is one of the best known and most popular priests in the diocese and is assured of a hearty welcome by the congregation of the Church of the Assumption. He delivered an eloquent eulogy at the funeral of Rev. Father O'Donovan and at that occasion, it may be said, was introduced to the members of the congregation.

Because of Father O'Neill's ability as a speaker he has been sought by many of the churches of the diocese on special occasions. While in the priesthood he has always displayed marked zeal and his efforts have met with success. He took a classical course at the University of St. Joseph's College, Menamcook, N. B., and pursued his theological studies at the Grand Seminary in Quebec. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1892 by the late Bishop Sweeney. He remained attached to the staff of the cathedral for ten years and was then transferred to St. Joachim's church, succeeding Rev. Father Cormier of Moncton. For the last sixteen years he has been the beloved pastor of this church and during that time endeared himself not only to the members of his flock, but to all with whom his priestly duties brought him in contact.

Upon his appointment to St. Joachim's church, he became chaplain of St. Patrick's Industrial School and his work also included the Municipal Home and the Boys' Industrial Home. His labors in these institutions have borne fruit. At his silver jubilee as a priest in last July the members of his congregation as well as people in the institutions showed how much they appreciated his kindly ministrations; no tribute was too great for their pastor and chaplain.
Only on last Sunday night Father O'Neill established the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary in St. Joachim's.
