

(6) LODGE CHELTENHAM.—Is a member suffering from insanity entitled to sick benefits? Answer—Yes; he may also continue in membership, subject, of course, to the constitution.

(7) LODGE PRINCE ALBERT.—Is a member entitled to sick benefits who does not comply with the latter part of Section 375 of the constitution? Answer—No.

(8) LODGE DERBY.—Is it necessary to pay registration fee for second marriage? Answer—No.

(9) NEWCASTLE.—Can any part of the General Fund be transferred to the Contingent Fund? Answer—No.

(10) LODGE CANTERBURY.—Can members be admitted during business hours? Answer—Yes, members can be admitted at any time except balloting, initiating, opening and closing lodge.

(11) LODGE ESSEX.—What amount should be paid to a member falling sick on Saturday and resuming work a week from the following Monday? Answer—The member is entitled to one week's sick pay, namely $3.

(12) LODGE LYDFORD.—Who should receive the sick benefits of a member in the asylum? Answer—The Executive are of the opinion that those who are maintaining the brother should receive his benefits. His lodge payments, of course, would have to be deducted from the benefits payable.

(13) LODGE MANCHESTER.—Can the lodge ballot for a member before he produces the doctor's certificate? Answer—No.

(14) D.D. HALIFAX.—Is a District Deputy supposed to wear his badge of office at all meetings? Answer—Yes.

Is he entitled to the honors of that office when entering the lodge room wearing his badge of office, or only when making an official visit? Answer—Only when making an official visit.

Is he, while holding that office, entitled to the same privileges as other members of his own lodge, by balloting, voting and speaking on all business matters presented in the said lodge? Answer—Yes.

(15) LODGE ROSE OF COUCHICHING.—Can a suspended member of a defunct lodge be admitted without paying the 16 weeks' dues? Answer—No; the 16 weeks' dues must be collected and credited to the defunct lodge account.

(16) LODGE CROYDON.—Would a member losing three fingers in a planing mill be entitled to sick benefits, also a member cutting his leg with