NATIONAL FUNERAL HELD AT WASHINGTON

Every Department of Government Was Represented—All Ambassadors and Ministers Also Took Part.

(Associated Press.)

Washington, May 28.-The remains of the late Lord Pauncefote, British ambassador to Washington, to-day were accorded a national funeral as a token of the personal worth of the deceased and ous diplomatic bodies, of which for so many years the late Lord Pauncefote the last words that will be spoken over the city members, and the suggestion was approved. A conference will be the ambassadors, ministers and charges.

Besides these, the resident society of the Capital was fully represented. The presence of a thousand men in arms was the visible sign of military participation in the funeral. The church, of which the deceased was a member, did honor to his memory by bringing to Washington to conduct the services the condition.
