THE AUTHORITIES SAID TO BE POWERLESS.

St. Petersburg, July 3.—Joseph Mandelkern, a real estate dealer of New York, who has just arrived in St. Petersburg from Poland, where he visited Warsaw, Lodz, Byelostok and other centres, declares that a state of anarchy exists there which the military and police are admittedly powerless to handle. He brings startling information about the "Bund" and other revolutionary organizations in the Caucasus; they have now forbidden the payment of taxes under penalty of death, and are levying tribute for the purpose of resistance to the government.

"On the advice of the revolutionists a committee of twenty was selected to take charge of the vessel under the direction of a boatswain's mate and apparently against the latter's will. Dissention prevailed among the crew, only part of which was influenced by the revolutionists and wanted to follow the Kniaz Potemkine. The latter threatened to fire on the Georgi Pobledonosetz if she tried to rejoin the squadron at Sebastopol.
