

OPPOSITION CANDIDATES IN KINGS COUNTY Enthusiastically Received Everywhere Throughout the County!

Supporters of Foster Government are looking to the Opposition for relief from the staggering burden of public debt, for relief from taxation through the Amusement Tax which is collected from men, women and children throughout the province, for relief from direct taxation through the Public Health Act where the people are being assessed to pay for the upkeep of this department.

The people of Kings County are resenting the attitude of Mr. E. S. Carter who is trying to 'defame the characters of Messrs. Jones, Murray and Dickson, the popular Opposition candidates, men who have done and are doing more for the country than any other members elected in Kings County.

Mr. Carter's own record is too well known for the electors of the County of Kings to place any confidence in the wild flights of imagination in which he indulges when trying to blacken the characters of his opponents. Mr. Carter is now stating that the Government put two candidates in the field and there will be undivided support for a third. THIS IS NOT SO. The Government put THREE CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD, but realizing that the Opposition ticket would have a walk-over one retired and the Government executive endorsed Mr. Huggard at the meeting held in Hampton as the third member, indicating that there is underground work going on and Mr. Carter is the manipulator. The farmers are awakening to this fact and will vigorously endorse the policy of Mr. Jones, Mr. Murray and Mr. Dickson on October 9th. The farmers are being misled, but are beginning to realize that they have been made the tool of the Government. The Opposition has done more for the farmers of Kings County and the Province of New Brunswick than the Foster Government has ever done, or will do.

Mr. Jones is a reputable business man whose record is well known in the County of Kings; Mr. Murray has long been a resident of Sussex and is highly esteemed by all, and Mr. Dickson is a responsible farmer. Their ticket is one which appeals to all who desire a square deal.

New York, Oct. 6.—The American League Club defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers of 3 to 1 in the 1920 world series. The victory, more impressive than the appearance to indicate, was a feat of team play, sparked by individual work of the Indians, which made the Dodgers dubby by the opening contest. The attendance did not overtop the official figures, according to the official National Commission, paid admission to the game at least another $100,000, he added when the other semi-official figures are included.

Gate Receipts

The gate receipts were $79,043. In both the gate receipts this figure was the best individual game in Brooklyn in the series. The game was played in a cold gray sky and it was reminiscent of the atmosphere of the night of the first game. The enthusiasm of the Cleveland fans was a real factor in the battle and rooting faded away into occasional bursts of applause.

A High Wind

A high wind also played a part in the fielding of fly balls, which were an unusual number. The game carried the Cleveland fans in wild spirals while waiting for the ball to be hit. It was a real factor in the battle and rooting faded away into occasional bursts of applause. Feature

For Brooklyn the play of the game was a drive to the right in the fifth inning. The ball of the Cleveland man port like the crack field. It appeared to be a base hit, but it was back with the crack when he reached the spring high up again and caught the ball in the air above ground, bouncing up and off the Cleveland batters' heads to hit than either.
