

REAL ESTATE

Alfred Burley & Co. have sold the Conners farm at Barnesville, Kings county, consisting of 100 acres with good house, two barns and two other out-buildings.

OBITUARY

David Robinson McCordock, carpenter, who lives on the west side, died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. McCordock had been ill since December 1, but his death came unexpectedly.

Mrs. Henrietta McFarlane. Mrs. Henrietta McFarlane died in the Home for Incurables yesterday after a lengthy illness. She had only been an inmate of the home for less than two weeks.

Mrs. Margaret Ludlow. Mrs. Margaret L. Ludlow died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Dykeman, of Moncton, after a long illness.

Mrs. Margaret Ludlow. Mrs. Margaret L. Ludlow died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Dykeman, of Moncton, after a long illness.

Mrs. Margaret Ludlow. Mrs. Margaret L. Ludlow died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Dykeman, of Moncton, after a long illness.

Earle Logan, of this city, and Bonnie Carrie and Annie, at home. Mrs. Wilson was forty-eight years of age.

Monday, Feb. 23. The death of David J. McLaughlin occurred in the General Public Hospital yesterday afternoon. Mr. McLaughlin was a roofer by trade, and had many friends in the city.

Mrs. W. H. B. Sailer. Monday, Feb. 23. The death occurred suddenly at her home, 269 Union street, yesterday, of Mrs. William H. B. Sailer.

Mrs. G. A. Hamilton. The death of Mrs. Hamilton, widow of the late Dr. G. A. Hamilton, formerly of this city, occurred on Saturday.

Mrs. George A. Hilyard. Friends will read with regret of the death of Mrs. George A. Hilyard, which took place on Saturday following a severe operation performed a few days previous.

Mrs. John W. Green. Monday, Feb. 23. Many friends will bear with sincere regret of the death at the General Public Hospital, yesterday, of Mrs. Mildred Jean Stackhouse.

Mrs. Anne Lambert. A well known and much respected resident of St. John West passed away yesterday in the person of Mrs. Anne Lambert, wife of William H. Lambert.

Mrs. Alfred J. Wilson. After a lingering illness, having been an invalid for many years, Mrs. Alfred J. Wilson died on Saturday at her home, 192 King street, west, at Cedar Hill.

CHEW PASTIFIC PLUG TOBACCO. It's the best thing yet boys! Image of a man smoking a pipe.

CONDENSED NEWS, LOCAL AND GENERAL. CREW TELL STORY OF TERRIBLE HARDSHIP. Says the Halifax Herald: "Three of the shipwrecked crew of the Carrie M. Wambach, which was abandoned at sea on Jan. 16 last, were on board the Alsatian, which arrived here Saturday."

BIRTHS. CONNOR—At 254 Princess street, Feb. 20, to the wife of W. A. Connor, manager Union Bank of Canada, a son, SMITH—To Rev. William and Mrs. Smith of the rectory, Gagetown, a son, Feb. 20.

MARRIAGES. CROCKETT-COTHER—In this city, on Feb. 18, by Rev. Wellington Camp, Frederick J. Crockett, of Dover (N. H.), to Helena L. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cother, of this city.

DEATHS. BROWN—At Smithtown, on Feb. 22, after a short illness, James Brown, aged 54 years. Funeral at the parish church, Lakeside, on Thursday, leaving the house at 1 o'clock.

WEDDINGS. Thulin-Nobles. Monday, Feb. 23, a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Whitman, 590 Main street, Medford (Mass.), when Miss Maude Nobles Thulin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nobles, of Hatfield's Point, Kings County, N. B., was united in marriage to Irving Waldemar Thulin, of Medford (Mass.).

VOL. LIII. LOCAL GOOD. Debate On Soon O Premier Flemm of Comprom Fisheries. Accepted 566,000 Province Needed Talks of Vaile Work But is St tion—Eulogizes ber for York and met Officials.

Special to The Telegraph. The session of the Legislature which took place yesterday was impressive and very a ceremonial and social the session is not likely to thing, which is the best of the Legislature.

GREEN—At her residence, Manawagonish Road, Fairville, Feb. 22, Mrs. Green, aged 76 years, daughter of the late Joseph Green, died.

STARVED NERVES. The Cause of Neuralgia—It Must be Treated Through the Blood. Neuralgia is a cry of the nerves for more and better blood.

CAMPBELLTON NEWS. Campbellton, N. B., Feb. 20—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stevens are moving from Campbellton to St. John. The change is brought about by the removal of the Ocean Limited express.

WEDDINGS. Thulin-Nobles. Monday, Feb. 23, a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Whitman, 590 Main street, Medford (Mass.), when Miss Maude Nobles Thulin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nobles, of Hatfield's Point, Kings County, N. B., was united in marriage to Irving Waldemar Thulin, of Medford (Mass.).