

Jan. 6th, 1892. The Rector opened with prayer, after which the President took the chair and the election of officers was proceeded with :

President—Mrs. Dyson Hague. Secretary—Mrs. C. C. Blackadar. Vice-President—Mrs. H. Hesslein. Treasurer—Miss Tremaine. Assistant Treasurer—Mrs. J. C. Mahon.

Last year $97.25 was collected, and this year $108.00. What is left over is put in the Bank. This year has been a prosperous one. The Secretary, Mrs. C. C. Blackadar reports as follows the work for 1892 : Articles made, 506. Sold to women, 339. Sold by committee, 123. Badly made, 10. No. returned 21. Given away, 4. Articles in trunk, 9. There were given besides 36 pairs of sheets, several yards of tweed. Fourty-four women received work. May these good works, so like to those of Dorcas of old, prosper more and more.

3rd. CHRISTMAS CHURCH WORK.—The work of decorating the church, a labour of love for dear old St. Paul's, is cheerfully undertaken every year by several of the ladies and gentlemen of the Parish. Reredos was in the hands of Mrs. Borden and Mrs. Humphrey ; the Prayer desk of Mrs. Robie Uniacke and Miss Uniacke ; the Lectern of Miss Shand and Miss Lordly ; the Pulpit of Miss E. Kellogg and Miss Norton-Taylor. Mr. Wetmore and Mr. A. deB. Tremaine assisted in the designing. And a large number whom space prevents from mentioning particularly gave their cheerful services.

4. Instructional.

First. The Rector's Bible Class on Friday afternoon. This has been fairly well attended. The subjects taken were the lessons of the Exodus. It is chiefly attended by ladies. On occasions when the Rector was absent his place was supplied by Mr. Skey or Mr. Almon.
