Calendar, Aspects, &c.

Changeable weather remains unsettled.

8th Sunday after Trinity.

You may expect rain, but the general

aspects are unsettled and variable.

A heavy thunder storm is gathering, and bursts in the North-

East.

9th Sunday after Trinity.

Considerable damage done by a

Western hurricane. Thunder and hail, with heavy rain.

Not so hot in August as last year,

according to the signs.

10th Sunday after Trinity.

Harvest progressing and almost completed, but not on the whole equal to the average of the last three years. In some few places harvest more productive.

11th Sunday after Trinity.

4th Alass St. Bartholomew. The signs

at present are for rain and wind.

Changeable for a day or two.

Rain and wind.

Light wind and cool nights.

12th Sunday after Trinity.

A NEW Chicago Fire Insurance Company, taking a lesson from misfortune, has added the following to its regular list of questions:

1. Do you keep a cow?
2. Is it a female cow?
3. Is it a farrow cow?
4. Is it a kicking cow?
5. Is kerosene used in milking?

An ignorant housemaid who had to call a gentleman to dinner found him engaged in using a tooth-brush. "Well, is he coming?" said the lady of the house, when the servant returned. "Yes, ma'am, directly," was the reply: "he's jist sharpening his teeth."

A WORTHY deacon lately gave notice at a prayer-meeting of a church-meeting that was to be held immediately afterwards, and unconsciously added: "There is no objection to the female brethren remaining." This reminds us of a clergyman who spoke in his sermon of a very affecting scene where "there wasn't a dry tear in the house."

"CAN't you trust me, Mr. Butcher, a little meat this morning?"

"No, you owe me for that already on your bones."

A LONDON merchant advertised for a clerk who could "bear confinement." He received an answer from one who had been seven years in jail.
