

The Worcester Bay State proprietor as follows: "He swallows like some old-fashioned chimney? Because they have choked flow."

Why do people doubt the merits of Mr. Buchanan—or any other bad-hair President? Because his excellency (His Excellency) is not apartment (a parent).

A contemporary of ours protests most earnestly that he is always as good as dead. No doubt he is; but his word is good for nothing. Says Pratfall:

The darkest scene we ever saw, says a contemporary, as a darky in a dark cellar with an extinguished candle, looking for a black cat that was't there!

A teacher of one of the Sunday school! was lecturing a class of little girls on the influence of pious instruction in the formation of youthful character.

"Ah, Miss Caroline," said he to one of the class, "what do you think you would have been without your good father and pious mother?"

"I suppose, sir," answered Miss Caroline, "I should have been an orphan."

"Your hand annoys me exceedingly," said the Prince of La Roche to a talkative person who was constantly sutting the action to the word as he sat next him at dinner.

"Indeed, my lord," replied the babler, "we are so crowded at the table that I do not know where to put my hand."

"Place it upon your mouth," replied the prince.

Dogget, the actor, was a man of great humanity, as will appear by this anecdote. His landlady's maid, having taken an opportunity to go into his chamber one afternoon, and get her throat with one of his razors Dogget, when told of it behind the scenes, exclaimed in a great passion:

"Zounds, I hope it was not with my best razor!"

I say.—Dr. Sharp, of Hart Hall, Oxford, had a ridiculous, though very common habit of prefacing each sentence with the words "I never see a undergraduate having mimicked this peculiarity, the doctor sent for him to give him a jobation, which he began thus;

"I say, they say, you say, I say I say;" When, finding the ridiculous combination, concluded by bidding him quit the room.

Dignum and Moses Kean, the mimic, were both tailors and intimate friends. Bannister met them under the Piazza, in Covent Garden, arm-in-arm.

"What does your brother," said he, "but I think of a play of Shakespeare's."

"Which of them, Bannister?"

"Why, Measure for Measure."

The Charleston Advertiser says a whale of the hump back species was driven ashore at Nantux, near New York, and upon being cut open a pair of boots marked "J." in a good state of preservation, were found in his entrails. It is supposed that the boots, as they were marked "J." belonged to Jonah, and were taken off and left behind him sometime when he made his exit from the fish.

THE SMITHS.—A wag who called aloud in the pit of Drury Lane Theatre, "Mr. Smith your house is on fire,"—whereupon a hundred or two—twenty-five Mr. Smiths—rose up and roared. "It is Mr. John Smith's house," that ten sat down; leaving a preponderance of a hundred and fifteen Johns in a net amount of one hundred and twenty-five Smiths.

YOUNG LADIES' ACADEMY OF THE GREY SISTERS.
OTTAWA CONVENT T. C.
Under the Patronage and with the light Reverend DR. GUIGUES.

[THIS Institution, established some twenty years ago, is well calculated by its position between Upper and Lower Canada, to afford the greatest facilities to French and English Young Ladies, for acquiring a complete education in their mother tongue, while they receive at the same time that is foreign.]

Nothing has been neglected that could contribute to attain this double end; and the ample and honorable testimony constantly rendered, proves the effort to have been successful.

The Academy employs to develop the intellect and cultivate a literary taste, are a well regulated Post Office and a Weekly Newspaper, printed and published on the premises.

In the Commercial course a practical education is excited by a Bank and Commercial Rooms, in which all the duties of business are explained.

It is a particular point of the rule that some of the recreations of the day, are each alternate week, devoted to the study of French, for those who are capable of speaking both languages.

Those who study Music will find everything that could secure them rapid and brilliant success; for this, it suffices to say that no fewer than Six Teachers are devoted to this Department, whom embrace the Harp, Piano, Organ, Meisodan, Organ, &c.

A similar number of Mistresses preside over the departments of Painting, Needlework, Penmanship, Painting, and the different kinds of Drawings, Embroidery, Wax Work, Artificial flowers, &c. The Dramatical is not permitted, to supercede the Musical, but to be obliged to learn the theory and practice of Domestic Economy.

No distinction of Religion is made in the admission of pupils. Children of different denominations, brought oblige to conform strictly to the order of the House, are not required to assist in the Religious exercises of the community.

Circulars containing particulars can be obtained by addressing the Lady Superior.

NO FARM WITHOUT A BAROMETER.
—Every farmer who has a Barometer, as if his valuable instrument was in general use in this country there would be very little hay and grain lost, and the farmer would be enabled to observe its indications the right time to cut it can be told almost to a certainty.
The Barometer is now placed within the reach of every one as I am now selling a beautiful article a solid Rosewood, marking alterations in the column to the 100th of an inch, with correct thermometer attached, for $75.
The following is the best proof of the excellence of this instrument.
"CERTIFICATE."
"I do hereby certify that I have had one of Mr. G. W. Folke's Barometers in the Observatory for some months, for comparison, and I find the indications very correct; the tube is clear and well filled, and he scale and the other parts of the instrument are well got up. I can confidently recommend such Barometer as well adapted for popular observation."

Dr. Ward's
DEAD SHOT
WORM CANDY.

(CERTIFICATE.)
Albany Medical College }
December 15, 1882.

I do hereby certify that I have analyzed Dr. Ward's Dead Shot Worm Candy, and to the public I would say that they contain nothing that is in the least injurious to the youngest infant. They are entirely vegetable, and possess those truly antihelmintic qualities which above all others are preferable as exterminators of the common Tape Worm.

J. V. P. QUACKENBUSH,
Prof. of Obstetrics and diseases of Women and Children

This Medicine has been prepared by the proprietor for a number of years; has been used with the most decided success in numerous families of the first respectability, and has received the approval and recommendation of several eminent medical gentlemen. The most alarming symptoms of the disease arising from the prevalence of worms in the intestines have been speedily and entirely removed by the use of the VEGETABLE WORM CANDY.

Dreadful indeed are the effects of these pernicious vermin on the constitution, destroying the appetite, vitiating the nourishing principles, and their certain consequences are, indigestion, emaciation, a stoppage of the growth, and often followed by consumption and decline. Even where worms are not discharged, this medicine acts as a gentle and safe domestic physic—clearing the passages of whatever is noxious, introducing a healthy cycle into the constitution.

This is a purely vegetable preparation, and contains nothing that is injurious to the smallest infant, and children will eat them as quickly as common candy.

Price 25 cents.
