

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JAN. 8, 1909.

That Street.

The proposed extension of Central Avenue from Prospect Street to Acadia Street has been engaging a full share of the attention of the civic authorities of late. Two special meetings of the Council have been held for the express purpose of dealing with the question and the further proceedings have gone the deeper involved the matter appears to have become.

Town Council Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the Council on Wednesday evening the Mayor and all the Councilors were present. The annual report of the Police and License Committee and the Town Weigher were presented, and the Mayor laid on the table his financial report to the government.

Rowdiness Among College Students.

Sir,—for some years we have been seeing such paragraphs in the papers as the following touching upon "bawling" and other rowdy actions among the college students.

chief chorus in their annual performance at the theatre before the site of the city. This leads to other bad language, which has also been noticeable. We notice recently that these rowdy acts are being practiced in the colleges in the large cities, as well as on the streets.

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING? Any man, woman or child who is indifferent to the beauties of nature and the joys of living needs something. There's something wrong that should be made right—quickly.

INDIGESTION TO SLOW STARVATION. Food is in the human body what fuel is to a furnace. Without the aid of the body's organs and diet, just as a furnace fire dies, grows dim, when supplied with fuel, indigestion, stomach decay, soiling as it is in the stomach, fermentation, giving off noxious gases and acid fluids that poison the blood and flow with it all through the system.

Now is the Season To build up the system and prepare it for the long cold winter by taking a few bottles of Nyal's Wild Cherry Emulsion with the Hyphosphites.
