

Her greatest wish is to become a stenographer, she understands and speaks English well, but not fluently to help her of her desire.

With your help Mr. Remon would you kindly beg the Indian Department to furnish the child's further education.

Hoping to hear a favorable answer.

I am Sir

yours respectfully
A. Beauvais.

The Department answered her, if she would attend the school for two more years they would consider the matter.

This she has fulfilled faithfully. you will kindly see among my reports she has been a regular pupil for six years.

She is well versed in all the branches of her class as a Fourth Reader.

The girl is now sixteen years of age. naturally the mother wishes to keep her home. She is an exceedingly clever girl.
