Mr. W. S. Mackenzie King
Min. of Labor

My dear King:

- Has the G.T.R. done all it intends to do in the way of reinstating striking conductors. I am sorry to say there are several (16 or 18) conductors here who have not yet been taken on - Disappointment is keen & criticism increasing - What can be done in the matter?

Yours sincerely
J. Rankin
