

Now that the summer holiday season is just around the corner one's thoughts turn to pleasure trips—where to go and what to do. Here are a few views of some of the beauty spots in the Rockies where one can spend a restful and profitable vacation. These summer resorts are among the many reached by Canadian Pacific Railway and open to the tourist during the summer season.

- (1) The Chateau Lake Louise.
- (2) Motoring—Valley of the Ten Peaks.
- (3) Saddleback Tea Room.
- (4) With us at Lake Windermere.
- (5) You see it all from the open top observation car on the Canadian Pacific.
- (6) A dip in the warm sulphur pool—Banff Springs Hotel.
- (7) Making ready—morning scene Wapta Camp, near Hector.
