

General Sikorski -- Conclusion

A word in presence of others with regard to Consul General of Poland in Canada:

Mr. Victor Podoski

No finer representative.

A man of highest character and integrity.

A great gentleman and scholar.

Eloquent speaker.

Has expressed the ideals of his country.

Helpful in relations of government.

Holds an honourable and enviable place in Canada.

Re Minister from Poland:

Thought it inadvisable to increase representation of countries in Europe at present.

Contacts with new continents --
South America

When moment comes Poland will be one of first countries from which we will welcome a minister to our diplomatic service.

ASK DANDURAND . . . .