

e II (the King
84
enna, 297
-31
e of, brother of
of, Regent of
XV, 154-60
Law's scheme,
eral policy, 150
ke of, as Duke
eyes with Du-17
pital of France,
ing the Revo-
ache: pacifism,
ideal country
ou), 289
strangled in 102
e of, appeals
their political
of Reims, hap-
three thousand
uplessis, Car-
otism, 133
57
an, foresees the
n of the State.

245

- Robespierre, execution of, 246
Roman Empire, see Empire
Russia, see Alexander
retreat from, 294-6
- Saint-Bartholomew's Day, massacre
of, 123-4
Saint Helena, 334
Saint-Just, his political philosophy,
230
Salt tax, abuse of, 147
Sidonius Apollinarius, describes the court of King Euric the Goth
at Toulouse, 24-5
Smith, Sydney, his rise to rid himself
of Bonaparte, 262
States-General of France, constituted and summoned by Philippe-le-Bel in 1302, 64
meet in Paris in 1356, 81
meet in Paris in 1914, 133
meet at Versailles, May 5, 1789, 179
Syrian colony at Lyons in the first century, 16
- Talleyrand and Fouché, their mistrust
of Napoleon, 285-8
minister of Louis XVIII and concludes the first Treaty of Paris, 306-9
his conduct at the Congress of Vienna, 307
Theodoric the Goth, wins the battle
of Châlons, 26
Thermidor, conf d'Etat, 246
Tiers-Etat, institution of, 64
demands a programme of reforms, 176
its importance in 1789, 179
- Tilsit, interview of Napoleon and Alexander at, 282
Toulouse, the kingdom of, 21-7
Tratalgar, Nelson destroys the French fleet at, 283
Troyes, treaty of, in 1420, recognizes Henry V of England as heir
to the crown of France, 90
Trice of God, 39
Tuleries, the mob attack the, 214-15
Tu-90, 177
- Vahny, Kellermann's volunteers defeat the Prussians at, 220
Varennes, flight of the King and Queen to, 201-3
Vauban, Marshal, his scheme for reform, 153
Venice, sacrificed by Napoleon at
the treaty of Campo Formio,
250
Versailles, the building of, 148
Veto, the King's privilege of, 190
"Monsieur and Madame," 210
Vienna Congress of, 307-9
Villehardouin, his Conquest of Constantinople, 70 Visconti, Valentine, bequeaths to the French King her claims to Milan, 109
Visigoths, see Goths
- Waterloo, battle of, 322-32
Wellington, sent to oppose Napoleon
in Spain, 290
represents England at the Congress of Vienna, 310
at Waterloo, 322-32
shows himself unexpectedly the protector of France, 339-41