Banquet to Canon

O'Meara.

most enjoyable banquet was given by St. Gabriel's Young Men's Society on Wednesday evening, May 15th, in honor of their spiritual director, Rev. Canon O'Meara. Dr. Conroy presided, and on his right e guest of the evening, Rev. was th Canon O'Meara, and Father Polan, and on his left Father Fahey Father Michael O'Brien, and Messrs E. Foster, E. O'Flaherity, J. Polan, J. Collins and M. Cosgrove, representing the Juvenile Temperance Society.

After ample justice had been done to all the good things, the President, in proposing the toast of "Our said: Like one called upon Guest," to sing, who is almost certain ntan strike the wrong note of accompaniment, I rise to speak the word of welcome for St. Gabriel's Young Men's Society this evening. Could J gather the thoughts that tremble to-night towards the lips of every of our own gratification and come to our distinguished guest. If seemed but right to this Society, composed entirely of the young men of the parish, who have all passed beneath our Rev. Canon's eye, who have felt in some way his goodness and wisdom, that we should have little feast, and have him, as were, all to ourselves for one evening, when we could express OUI great appreciation and deep respect for the pastor who for so long time has labored among us, and for the many kindnesses received at his We feel individually, and as a Society, that a great honor has een justly and rightly conferred on Camon O'Meara. We are delighted to think that our pastor has the dis tinction of being the first Irish price raised to this dignity in the cese of Montreal. We congratulate him on his appointment and cess as a member of the Catho School Board. We wish him a ma pleasant journey and a safe return home. In conclusion, the members of briel's Young Men's Soci want to extend their heartfelt thanks to our spiritual director for all the kindness and favors of the past, and Corn Cure. It has never been i sincerely trust that he may be spared to fail.
