THE CATHOLIG REGORD

POSITIVE VIRTUE.

He went from the old home hearthstone Only two years ago, A laughing, frolicking feilow, It would do you good to know. Since then we have not seen him, And we say, with nameless pain, The boy that we knew and loved so We shall never see again.

Lost a Boy.

One bearing the name we gave him Comes home to us to-day, But this is not the dear fellow We kissed and sent away. Tall as the man he calls father, With a man's look in his ince, Is he who takes by the hearthstone The lost boy's olden place.

We miss the laugh that made music Wherever the lost boy went, This man has a smile most winsome, His eyes have a grave intent; We know he is thinking and planning His way in the world of men, And we cannot help but love him, But we long for our boy again.

We are proud of this manly fellow Who comes to take his place, With hints of the vanished boyhood In his earnest, thoughtful fee; And yet comes back the longing The boy we must henceforth miss, Whom we sent away from the hearthstone Forever. with a kiss.

CATHOLIC SETTLERS IN THE NORTHWEST.

A correspondent of the Boston Transcript, writing from St. Paul, Minn., fur-nishes some very interesting and instruc-tive statistics on the settlement of the va-cant bat fertile lands of the Northwest. He briefly sketches the origin, growth, and present prosperous condition of the Catho-Ite colonies established by Bishop Ireland in Minnesota, and gives very flattering ac-counts of the general air of thrift and industry that prevails there. There are five distinct settlements under the control of the Catholic Colonization Society, their aggregate population being about 1,600 families. In addition to the exertions of the Bishop and his associates, an element of strength and progress has been added through the exertion of Mr. Dillon O'-Brien. Mr. John Sweetman, a wealthy gentleman from County Meath, Ireland, came interested last year in the question of emigration, and after studying the subject thoroughly, proceeded to St. Paul, where he examined the country, informed himself as to its productive capacity, climate, etc., returned home, where he organized the Irish-American Colonization Company, with a capital of  $\pounds$  50,000. Thirty thousand acres of land were pur-chased in the Township of Currie, and here a flourishing colony has already been planted. Each family gets eighty acres. a yoke of oxen, a cart, a plow, and other implements of husbandry, as well as house-hold furniture and a barrel of pork. Mr. Sweetman is at present among his people, whom he encourages to be frugal, indus-trious, and honest. The correspondent says that the population of Minnesota will be appreciably increased next year through the exertions of the Irish-American Colonization and the Catholic Colon

Virtue is often a negative quality. The man who has no temptation to do wrong, and is so circumstanced that he finds it most natural and easy to do right, has no most natural and easy to do right, has no special occasion to plume himself on his virtue, and is not to be held up as a pat-tern by any means. For instance, there comes to mind a man who never drinks. He never did drink, he never wanted to drink, he doesn't like to drink, and—he doesn't drink. Another did drink always wanted to drink drank. to excess, does wanted to drink, drank, to excess, does like to drink, but after a long and manly struggle succeeded in getting the mastery of himself, and does not drink. That is Yet the world praises the one be virtue. Yet the world praises the one be cause he never drank; and though it applauds the other for conquering his appe-tite, remembers the time when it seeme the, remembers the time when it seemed to conquer him. Let us praise virtue, and applaud it, but let us make certain that it is virtue before the demonstration begins. People whobing into this world begins. People whooring into this work hot tempers, strong impulses, and fiery passions are certainly to be pitied, but not to be blamed, unless they give way to them without effort; while, if they con-

Over two hundred constabulary, under the com-mand of Mr. Garrett, county inspector, 150 men and six officers of the Nine-teenth and Ninety-fourth Regiments, and three officers and fifty men of the Nine-teenth lussars all under the com-stipation, dropsy, kidney complaints, stapation, dropsy, kidney complaints, three officers and fifty men of the Nine-teenth Hussars, all under the command of Mr. French, Mr. Blair, and Mr. Neile, and general debility. teenth Hussars, all under the command R. M.'s, were engaged in protecting the sub-sheriff, Mr. Townley, and the bailiffs. During the past few days both the military and police had contributed out of their own pocket to pay the rent of tenants on the same property and save the people from eviction, but to-day that task would have been too great. A large crowd, Earl Cowper's proclamation notwithstanding, were present, but with the exception of some loud denunciations of the bailiffs their demeanor was quiet.

A CHAPTER ON LIGHTNING RODS.

Indisputable Evidence of Their Efficiency During the Late Storm .- The Globe Company's Operations to be Extended.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT? A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few pre-parations of medicines which have with-stood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Read the following and be convinced :—Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre. P. Q. writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried for the last ten years, and have then many remedies without any reherf, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and since then have had no attack of it. I would recom-mend it to all."-J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, West Shefford, F. Q., writes—"I have been troubled with liver complaint for sev-eral years and have tried different medieral years and have tried different medi cines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which gave me-immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. ### A Fool once More.

"For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her, and I used up a small fortune in humbug stuff. Six months ago I saw a U. S. flag with Hop Bitters on it, and I thought I would be a fool once more. I tried it, but my folly proved to be wisdom. Two of our Catholic contemporaries have quite recently called attention to the neglect of some Catholics who pass a priest without proper recognition. We have had clergymen complain to us of this same disrespect in some of our people, and the im-pression the priest receive i was that these weaklings were ashamed of this courtesy, which may often be represented as an act of faith.

Well, we pity the Catholic who is as-hanned to recognize his clergymen; and the hat that cannot be raised to the priest is glued to a very soft if not a wicked head. If the priest makes no response take it for granted that he is carrying the Blessed Sacrament, if there is room for that sup-position, and be greatful you had the op portunity to greatful you had the op portunity to encounter and reverence the Sacred Host.

If the priest fails to salute in return, and is evidently not bearing the Sacrament, then,—we are puzzled what to say. Can it be possible a clergyman could so far for-get Christian courtesy as to fail to ac-knowledge a respectful salute?—Catholic
