Ella Wheeler's Best.

Laugh, and the world laughs with you, Weep, and you weep alone; For the sad oid earth must borrow its mirth But has trouble enough of its own. Sing, and the hills will answer; Sigh—it is lost on the air: The echoes bound to a toyful sound, But are slow to voice your care.

Rejoice, and men will seek you;
Grieve, and they turn and go;
They want full measure of all your pleasure,
But they do not need your woe.
Be glad, and you friends are many;
Be sad, and you lose them all;
There are none to decline your nectared

But alone you must drink life's gall. Feast, and your hails are crowded;
Fast, and the world goes by;
Succeed and give and it helps you live,
But no man can help you die.
There is room in the halls of pleasure
For a large and lordly train,
But one by one we must all file on Thro' the narrow aisles of pain.

The Miseries of a Mean Man.

Sometimes I wonder what a mean man thinks about when he goes to bed. When he turns out the light and lies down. When the darkness closes in about him and he is alone, and compelled to be honest with himself. And not a bright thought, not a generous impulse, not a manly act, not a word of blessing, not a grateful look, comes to bless him again. Not a penny dropped into the not a manly act, not a word of blessing, not a grateful look, comes to bless him again. Not a penny dropped into the outstretched hand of poverty, nor the balm of a loving word dropped into an aching heart; no sunbeam of encouragement cast upon a struggling life; no strong right hand of fellowship reached out to help some fallen man to his feetwhen none of these things come to him as the "God bless you" of the departed day, how he must hate himself. How he must try to roll away from himseif and sleep on the other side of the bed. When the only victory he can think of is some mean victory, in which he has wronged a neighbor. No wonder he always sneers when he tries to smile. How pure and fair and good all the rest of the world must look to him, and how cheerless and dusty must his own path appear. Why, even one lone isolated appear. Why, even one lone isolated act of meanness is enough to scatter cracker crumbs in the bed of the avercracker crumbs in the bed of the average man, and what must be the feelings of a man whose life is given up to mean acts? When there is so much suffering and heartache and misery in the world, anyhow, why do you add one pound of wickedness or sadness to the general burden? Don't be mean, my boy.

Vegetable Cookery.

Why should beans never be put into cold water to soak, as is often recommended? Because all the nutritious portion of the bean is extracted by the process. They should be washed in warm water, then in cold, be tied loosely in a cloth, be put into boiling water, with a spoonful of dripping and a little salt in it, and be kept boiling for four hours. They are then excellent if served with grayy, and not with melted butter. with gravy, and not with melted butter. They serve as garnish around roast mutton or beef, and are excellent eating ton or beef, and are excellent eating served whole or as a puree. To make the latter—When the beans are done throw them instantly into cold water, when the skins will slip off. Rub the beans through a colander and mix a lump of butter with them. A little stock or milk or cream is excellent resided in mixed in.

Why should plenty of fast boiling water
be used in boiling vegetables, potatoes excepted? Because the greater the body of boiling water the greater the heat. If only a little water be used the whole affair soon cools and the vegetables become tough, so much so that no length of time in boiling then will render them otherwise. Broccoli will render them otherwise. Broccoli sprouts in April, if properly cooked by boiling them for eight minutes in boiling water, will be tender as marrow, but if not properly done hours will not cook

Why should onions be always cut in the fibre is thus cut across, and in so cutting them, whether for frying or for making sauce, they are rendered very tender when cooked. With turnips and round and very thin rings i carrots it is just the same ; neither of the three should be split or cut in any other three should be split or cut in any other way.

Why should parsley never be boiled with soda—only boiling water and salt? Because parsley, having no oil in it, would be spoiled with soda and all flavor would be extracted. All parsley should be picked free from the stem, be put into plenty of boiling water, with salt, and in summer be boiled only one minute, and in winter two minutes, and be strained and chopped on the back of a plate. If only a little water is used in boiling it, the water becomes brown and the parsley tough and ill flavored.

Why should vinegar for pickling with never be boiled? Because boiling takes all the strength from it. Whatever veg-all the strength from it. Whatever vegetables are to be pickled should first be made soft with boiling water, strong with salt, and then be well drained and the vinegar poured over.

Why should two ounces of salt and why should two ounces of salt and the property of the salt ways he put in why should two ounces of sait and a bit of washing soda always be put in water to boil greens in? Because the sait crisps the greens and flavors them, and the soda extracts the oil, which is greatly injurious to the digestion.

A Costly Tunnel.

The Welbeck Tunnel, which the late Duke of Portland, the "Invisible Prince," created for his workmen to pass through created for his workmen to pass through on coming to and returning from work, without disturbing the serene repose he longed for, is one of the wonders of the world. During the day it is lighted by enormous plate glass bull's eyes, superseded at night by hundreds of gas jets. The floor is excellently asphalted, and the tunnel is high enough and wide enough for carriages to pass along. Stepping into it during the hot days of summer, one feels as if he had walked into an ice house, and the whole length of its an ice house, and the whole length of its interior can be traversed without catch. ing the slightest glimpse of the abbey, or the beautiful park under which it
