A New Translation.

A gentlemen suffereth long and is kind. A gentleman envieth not. A gentleman vaunteth not himself—is not puffed up. A gentleman doth not behave himself unseemly. A gentleman seeketh not his own. A gentleman is not easily provoked. A gentleman thinketh no evil. A gentleman rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth. A gentleman beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. A gentleman never faileth.—S. Paul and Canon Scott.

The Canadian Official "Gazette" prints the following:—

Following the publication of an unfounded rumour to the effect that some 1,500 Canadian soldiers, previously reported "missing and presumed dead," had been located in Germany since the signing of the armistice last November, the Department of Militia and Defence has been deluged with letters from all parts of Canada from the next-of-kin of men falling in this category.

"The publication of the rumour has had distressing results," a statement from the Department says, "in that relatives of soldiers reported 'missing and presumed dead,' have had hopes revived only to again be shattered. The Militia Department characterizes the story as a 'hoax' and is taking steps to discover its origin."

VEST POCKET THRIFT CARD.

The National War Savings Committee has issued a new vest pocket thrift card 2% by 4% inches in size. Ladies, golfers, any class of persons, will find this a very convenient means for the carrying of Thrift Stamps, and it is hoped that all persons from the boy or girl up to the millionaire may make use of these cards.

SUSPICIOUS AT THAT.

Old Jenkins was mad with rage. For twelve months he had taken the plate around at the local church every Sunday. Now someone else had been asked to perform the duty.

"I consider I have been grossly insulted," he said to a friend.

"But," said the latter, "I don't think there is any bad feeling toward you."

"I don't know about that," roared Jenkins, "but it looks very suspicious. The fellow they have asked to do the job has only got one arm."
