BUILDERS

Nisi Dominus frustra
(By D. A. C.)

Durability depends on foundation and how we build. Thousands are learning that this BRITISH COLUMBIA MONTHLY, built for lasting service on the British (Empire) principle of steady work, dares, in one way, to lead this Continent! . . . Meantime, re our co-workers:

Happy in suggestion, the work of Cartoonist E. R. McTaggart commends itself. "Spectator" is a modest but outstanding Educationalist. "Literary Notes" are by an experienced Litterateur. "The Wayside Philosopher's" views on timely topics are usually arresting—whether or not we agree with him! "Radio" is under well-qualified control—and a pen-name. "Skookum Chuck" (Mr. R. D. Cumming), a B. C. working journalist, shows notable ability in short-story writing. The bigger story-tellers of B. C.—such as Robert Allison Hood and Robert Watson—also lend a hand. Occasional contributors include prominent community men, like Dean Coleman and others of the University, and Mr. W. R. Dunlop, President of Vancouver Institute. Our lady contributors—but any sensible editor will leave them to speak for themselves; for, in verse as in prose, the ladies can lead!

With such Associates, this Magazine may well—

Advance in Community Service!
