An Act to amend Chapter seventy-five of the Consolidated Statutes for Upper Canada, intituled: An Act respecting Master and Servant.

[Assented to 18th September, 1865.]

Preamble.

Con. Stat. U. C.
c. 75.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the application in certain cases, of the provisions of the Act respecting Master and Servant, chapter seventy-five of the Consolidated Statutes for Upper Canada, and it is expedient that they should be removed: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

How certain differences between master and servant are to be decided.

1. If after the termination of an engagement between master and servant, any dispute shall arise between them in respect of the term of such engagement or of any matter appertaining to it, the Justice or Justices of the Peace who shall receive the complaint shall be bound to decide the matter, in accordance with the provisions of the Act respecting master and servant, and as though the engagement between the parties still subsisted; provided that proceedings be taken within one month after the engagement shall have ceased.

Proviso.

What evidence to be taken.

2. Whenever the Justice shall take the evidence of the complainant in support of his or her claim, the said Justice shall be bound to take the evidence of the defendant also, if tendered.
