Thursday, October 12th, 1769.

Mr Speaker and the Members waited on his Excellency the Governor with their Address, which was presented, as follows :

TO HIS EXCELLENCY the RIGHT HONORABLE

LORD WILLIAM CAMPBELL,

Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of Nova-Scotia, or Acadie in America, and its Dependencies, Vice Admiral of the same, &c. &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives for this Province, now met in General Assembly, return your Excellency our Thanks for your Speech from the Chair, and for calling us together at a Season of the Year which will best admit of our Deliberations on the present State and Circumstances of the Province, from which we hope with your Excellency, to derive all possible Benefit and Advantage.
