

SPEAKER—Continued.

4. Communicates a letter from the Petitioner in a controverted election case, withdrawing from the contestation, 12.
5. Lays before the House various Reports and Returns, 13, 158, &c.
6. Communicates a letter from a Member, resigning his seat, 26.
7. Acquaints the House that his warrant for the appointment of Members to serve on the General Committee of Elections is upon the table, 47.
8. Reports that he has taxed the costs to be paid in Controverted Election cases, 128, 168, 178.
9. Calls upon another Member to take the Chair during his temporary absence, 59, 81, 83, 88, 93, 123, 133, 139, 147, 153, 159, 164, 168, 173, 177, 180, 184, 187, 191, 199.
10. Over-rules an objection urged, that the motion for an Address to Her Majesty respecting a union of the British N. American Colonies, may involve new burthens upon the people, and ought therefore to have originated in Committee of the whole,—on the ground that the passing of the motion involves no further action of this House, and therefore the Rules relative to the mode of originating any Vote of Supply, do not apply thereto, 74.
11. Over-rules an objection made to a motion on the ground that a like motion, made on a previous day, is yet on the Orders of the Day, and undisposed of; Decides that the motion is in order, 160.
12. Decides that a motion in amendment to a motion to adjourn the debate on a certain question is not in order, 181.
13. Decides that the "Previous Question" may be moved by the proposer of the original motion, it not being of the nature of an amendment, 191.
14. Decides that a motion for an Address to His Excellency praying him to direct an appeal to the people before the question of the Confederation of the B. N. American Provinces is submitted to the Imperial Parliament,—moved in amendment to a motion for the appointment of a committee to draft the Address to Her Majesty on that subject agreed to by the House,—is in order, 198.
15. Decides (upon an objection taken) that a Private Bill which had been materially amended in a committee of the whole, ought to be referred back to the Committee on Standing Orders, to report whether the amendments were in excess of the Notice given 240.
16. Announces His Excellency's intention of proroguing the Legislature on the morrow, 254.
17. His Speech on presenting the Supply Bill to His Excellency, 257.
