Local and General

With our next issue we propose to make the Beacon a paper of eight pages. We have had this change in contemplation for a long time, but its consummation was retarded through the limitations of our machinery. The press we installed at the close of 1916 enabled us to make the change, but we decided to keep the old form of the paper till a new volume was begun, which will be with the first issue in July.

In Greenock Presbyterian Church, the Sunday Evening Service will be held at 7:30 during the months of July and August.

On Thursday evening a moonlight excursion from up-river spent a couple of hours in town.

SCHOONER A TOTAL LOSS

Word was received in the city yesterday by Agent J. C. Chesley, of the marine department, that the schooner Edgar W. Murdoch, en route to this port with a cargo of molasses, was ashore on Old Proprietor and was a total loss. A long distance call to Seal Cove, Grand Manan, last night brought the information that the schooner was sunk underneath the water entirely, and that the cargo was a total loss. She was consigned to J. T. Knight & Company, this city.

The Edgar W. Murdoch was a four-masted schooner. She was bound from Barbados with a cargo of molasses, and left May 15. The schooner had met with foggy weather all the way through and encountered severe gales. When within the vicinity of Grand Manan the iron spindles on the Old Proprietor ledges was first sighted through the fog. The schooner was quickly ordered to be turned to swing the vessel around, but failed to respond quickly enough and the vessel ran aground and fast. This was about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. At 6:45 p. m. she was entirely under water. Nothing was saved except a few scattering articles that the crew gathered hurriedly together.

The captain with eleven men of the crew got ashore in their small boat and landed at Gull's Cove, near White Head. From here they travelled to Woodville's Cove and thence to Eastport.

No one suffered any injury. The schooner was about 1,500 tons, registered, and was built in Rockport, Me., in 1904. She was worth practically a new vessel. The ship was worth $175,000. St. John Telegraph, June 20.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Carl Ingalls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Ingalls, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, N. B., who was killed in action in France on the 5th day of May, 1917. He was buried under the British flag and his grave marked by a cross of wood on which was inscribed his name, the date of his death, and the legend "At rest." Thus all that loving comrades could do for him was done and he sleeps in that far off land the last sleep of a brave soldier and a generous and patriotic youth who has made the supreme sacrifice for his country, and loved ones at home in Canada. Our Canada, which has only been kept from violation by the Hun by the sacrifices made by her brave sons on the bloody battle fields of France and Belgium. God grant that this voluntary giving up of life, and home and loved ones be not for nothing or in vain.

All honor to the brave men who have given their lives for Canada and the Empire. "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

This young soldier's great-grandfather, Daniel McLaughlin, took part in the Battle of Waterloo as an artilleryman in Lord Wellington's army, entering the ranks with the Allied armies. He enlisted when sixteen years of age. He was born at a place called "The Rock," near Londonderry, Ireland. This soldier of Waterloo, with members of his family, has been buried in the little cemetery overlooking the sea at Seal Cove, Required in France.
