U. S. Entry Has Added Final Impetus to Allies

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, April 19.—(New Sp.)—Predictions of a speedy end of the war are general here today. They are helped along by the news of immense victories on the British and French fronts and heavy German losses. The newspapers are full of such headings: "War drawing to a close," and "Selling like hot cakes," "The feeling that the end is approaching."

Many "confidants" here "out" feeling that the end is approaching. Germany not only has failed to induce Russia to a separate peace, but the German did not reply, but he up his hands suggestively. He was taken prisoner soon afterwards. His case is typical of thousands. The German soldiers are deeply affected by America's adherence to the allies. The French and British are overwhelmingly superior in moral ammunition, supplies, numbers, guns and machinery. They are winning now without great losses.

Renewal of the report that Turkey, Bulgaria and Austria are seeking a separate peace, the acute affliction in Berlin and Hamburg anger in Bavaria because of the revival of reports that the German staff is deliberately withdrawing troops into impossible positions and sacrificing them recklessly to this result, the German is the greatest enemy in the war. Reports of whole divisions swallowed up are confirmed from English sources.

Maximilian Harden and other German radical leaders are open demanding speedy constitutional reforms, giving Germany a responsible, parliamentary government, and are declaring that the allies are unwilling to stop fighting until Germany equips herself with a Democracy that can make a real and permanent peace by the voice of the nation, practically telling Germany that the longed for peace is possible whenever the Hohenzollerns are deposed.
