The Canadian Order of Foresters

This purely Canadian fraternal, benevolent and insurance society was organized in 1879 and now has a membership of upwards of 12,000, distributed in every province of the Dominion, to which its operations are confined. The society gives insurance to its members in policies of $500, $1,000, $1,500 or $2,000, the latter being the limit on any life. The premiums, payable monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between the age of	On $500	On $1,000	On $1,500	On $2,000
18 to 25	.35	.50	.90	$1.30
25 to 30	.40	.65	.98	1.30
30 to 35	.45	.70	$1.05	1.40
35 to 40	.50	.85	1.28	1.70
40 to 45	.55	$1.00	1.50	2.00

After paying upwards of one million and three quarters in death claims the Order had a surplus in the insurance department of $1,882,000 at the end of August last, all of which is invested in gilt-edged securities in Canada, or is on deposit in the best monetary institutions of the country. Not a dollar of the moneys collected for the insurance fund is ever has been used for the expense of management. The death rate per 1,000 of membership in 1898 was 4.56, in 1899, 4.43, in 1900, 4.88, and since the organization of the society, the average death rate has been only 4.93.

The Sick and Funeral Benefit is a very popular department and upwards of 22,000 of the members of the society are participating in the feature of the policy. The benefits are $3.00 per week for the first two weeks of illness, and $5.00 per week for the following ten weeks, altogether $56.00 during any one year, besides a funeral benefit of $50.00. In case of continued illness $56 is paid each year in sick benefits. The fees monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between 18 and 25 years.	25 cents
" 25 and 30 years.	30 cents
" 30 and 35 years.	35 cents
" 35 and 40 years.	40 cents
" 40 and 45 years.	45 cents

During the year 1901 over $63,000 were paid out in sick and funeral benefits. All physically and morally qualified males between the ages of 18 and 45 years, who are not disqualified on account of occupation, are accepted for membership.
