The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Foulds, beloved wife of Mr. H. A. Foulds. She had been ill for some time, and slept peacefully away. The deceased was a prominent member of the Farringdon church and had lived in Brantford for very many years. Her lovable qualities endeared her to all. Her father was the late Thomas Houlding of Brantford Township. She leaves to mourn her loss a fond husband, two sons and one daughter. First Showing of New Spring Suits

These Beautiful Suits (shown to-day for the first time) are exceedingly stylish and becoming. They are very smart, quite dintinctive from the more ordinary models of the past season. The fabrics are beautiful, being of the Bedford Cord and Whipcord variety along with some beautiful Scotch Tweed effects.

Jackets are short and jaunty with decided cut away lines, a dash of pretty color here and there, novelty buttons of attractive design are used. Altogether the suits are of superior type, eclipsing anything shown here-to-fore. Prices are reasonable, very, 15.00 and
