The house is believed to be the oldest in Western Ontario. It was built 100 years ago, and was once the residence of Sheriff Hands, one of the first officials appointed in this part of the Province. A BATTLE RAGING.

Boers Have Attacked General Gatacre at Molveno.

Nearpoort, Cape Colony, Jan. 2.—There was brisk fighting to-day in the hills around Colesburg. The Boers stubbornly resisted the British at every point, but gradually retreated. The British held the extreme position to the south and east, overlooking the town.

Sterkstroom, Cape Colony, January 3.—The Boers attacked Molveno this morning. A brisk action is in progress. Molveno is the town to which Gen. Gatacre retired after his reverse at Stormberg Junction recently.

CANADIANS HAD THE LOOT.
London, Jan. 3.—The representative of the Associated Press with the flying column says:

"The immediate result of Col. Pilcher's success is the entire dispersal of the rebels who have been governing the country for the past six weeks."

"After Sunnyside was captured the Toronto occupied the camp for the night and, joined the main body the following morning, bringing the whole of the Boer tents, wagons and loot, and leaving the Cornwalls in garrison at Sunnyside. The British force then started for Douglas, the Toronto bringing up the rear in wagons."

"In the afternoon the troops entered the town unopposed and amid extraordinary scenes. The inhabitants were overjoyed and crowded about the soldiers, shaking hands with them, and when they learned that their deliverers were Canadians and Australians, the enthusiasm became frenzied. There were deafening cheers as the troops traversed the main street, and it was almost impossible for them to make progress, the crowds being so eager to shake hands with the colonels."

"It appears that the landroost and all the mounted rebels evacuated the place on the previous night."

"The 40 prisoners captured by the Canadians will likely be shot as rebels to make an example."

WAR NOTES.

The Boers inquired by helicopter:—"Why is Roberts coming? What has Butler done?" The British replied:—"How did you like our liddie in the late battle?"

Gen. White reports under date of Dec. 31, that the number of cases of dysentery and fever is increasing in Ladysmith.

Great Britain will spend $23,000,000 on new and modern artillery.

James Baxter, the well known Montreal broker, was arrested last night for being a party to the concealment of Herbert, the Bank Ville Marie testifier. Baxter was refused for Baxted, and sensational developments are promised.

A detachment of the West India Regiment (colored) has embarked from Jamaica to reinforce the Bermuda garrison. It is expected that if the Imperial troops go to South Africa, Canadian militia will be sent there for garrison duty.

Mrs. John Phillip, of Hamilton, who has always borne a good reputation, who was highly respected by her friends, and who is well fixed financially, was convicted of shop-lifting in the George W. Robinson department store, and sentenced yesterday to ten days in jail.

There was a scene in court, Mrs. Phillip and her daughters crying bitterly. The woman was removed to jail in a hack.

THE GAS EXPLODED.

The pump at Fargo met with a nasty accident last evening. He had been pumping and went into the engine house with his lantern and looked down the well. Gas had accumulated during the pumping and the light lantern exploded it. The top was blown off the pump and the building was split open at the top. The pump was very severely burned about the face and hands. It was carried to the hotel where his injuries were attended to.

The Parisian Laundry building in Detroit, was gutted this morning. The loss of the various occupants exceeds $60,000.

It is intimated in London that as the fourth of January is usually regarded as settling day, Buller is very likely to meet his engagements to the Boers on that date.

THE BOERS RALLY

And are Still Fighting General French.

They Were Evidently Reinforced and Occupied Their Former Positions During the Night.

Rensburg, Cape Colony, Jan. 2.—It was discovered this morning that the Boers, who had apparently been reinforced, had returned during the night and reoccupied the positions from which General French drove them. Their quick-firing guns, which were believed to have been disabled yesterday, reopened to-day, shelling the British cavalry with considerable accuracy, though their shells did not explode and were ineffective. The British held all the positions they took yesterday.

MORE FIGHTING AHEAD.

London, Wednesday, Jan. 3.—The latest news of Gen. French's operations show that his clever surprise of the Boers and his successful skirmish with them will be followed by more fighting. The Boers during the darkness rallied and turned the surprise on the British by attacking them next day with their supposed crippled guns, some of which were evidently those that Gen. Gatacre lost at Stormberg.

Gen. French's despatch does not detail his movements later than 2 p. m. Jan. 1, and the final issue of the movement is unknown.

Nothing reliable has been received confirming the rumored occupation of Colesburg.

WAS THERE TREACHERY?

Rensburg, Cape Colony, Jan. 2.—A train containing supplies, to which no engine was attached, started moving within the British lines to-day, and ran down an incline toward the Boer lines. It was found that the train could not be stopped, and the British gunners were therefore ordered to destroy it to prevent the supplies from falling into the hands of the Boers. Their aim was accurate, and the cars and their contents were soon worthless. What started the train is unknown, but treachery is suspected. One man has been arrested in connection with the matter.

LIEUT. ADIE IS DEAD.

Belmont, Jan. 2.—(Toronto Mail Special).—Toronto Company of the Canadian contingent, 100 strong, under Capt. Barker, experienced its baptism of fire in South Africa yesterday, at Sunnyside, 30 miles north-west of here. Two of the Queensland volunteers were killed, and Lt. Adie, of the Queenslanders, died from wounds. None of the Canadians were killed. Forty Boers were captured and many killed. The Toronto boys were first in danger and stood fire gallantly.
