"My husband had been coughing for years and people frankly told me that he would go into consumption," writes Mrs. John Shireman, of No. 26; agth Place, Chicago, Ill. "He had such terrible coughing spells, we not only grew much slarmed, but looked for the bursting of a blood vessel or a hemorrhage at almost any time. After three days' coughing he was too weak to cross the room. The doctor did him no good, I stated the case to a druggist, who handed me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. My husband's recovery was remarkable. In three days after he began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery he was up and around, and in two more days he went to work. Two bottles cured him."

Emperor William has designed another palatial yacht for himself. The plans are completed, and work upon the construc-tion will be commenced at once.

During his coming visit to England King Oscar of Sweden and Norway will deliver a lecture at Oxford university on the literature of his own country. The aged king of Denmark, father of the Princess of Wales, is failing rapidly in physical vigor. He expressed a desire recently not to leave his home again. Queen Wilhelmina of Holland is much rieved over the war in South Africa. Both she and her mother are constantly contributing funds in aid of the Boers. She is fully persuaded that the English people are in the wrong. Germany's crown prince, now 18 years of age, has passed his abiturienten examination at the Ploen gymnasium and will now serve for some months in the army with the First Prussian Foot Guard regiment at Potsdam. He will then enter the University of Bonn, like his father and grandfather.
