A CURIOUS CLIENT

A Wonderful Change Which Took Place in a Short Time.

A new story is being told in Europe about David Col, the Antwerp painter, who died recently. As he was at work in his studio one day many years ago there entered a farmer, who requested him to paint his father's portrait. The artist, not being overburdened with wealth at that time, gladly agreed to do the work, and said that he would be pleased to see the old gentleman at any time. Thereupon the farmer said, mournfully:

"Oh, you can't see him, sir, for he's dead."

"Then how on earth do you expect me to paint his portrait?" asked the artist, with a sigh.

"Oh, you're fooling me, sir," said the farmer. "Just tell me whose picture that is on the easel there."

"That is a portrait of St. Anthony," was the answer.

"Is that really St. Anthony?"

"Yes."

"Did he sit to you?"

"Of course not."

"Well, then, isn't that a clear proof that you are able to make the portrait of a dead man?"

Col, who wanted money badly, allowed himself to be persuaded by this novel argument, and, therefore, he obtained from the farmer as many particulars about the dead man as he could, and then, after making a sketch of the son, because he said that he closely resembled his father, he began work on the portrait. When it was finished he sent for the farmer and showed it to him. To his surprise the man fell on his knees and began to cry bitterly, his eyes meanwhile fixed on the portrait. Col flattered himself that he had made a life-like portrait, and that it was the wonderful resemblance which caused the son to grieve so sorely.

"Why do you cry so much?" he asked, trying to comfort him.

"Oh, my dear sir," was the unexpected reply, "I never thought that any one could change so much in such a short time. Dear me, how terribly ugly my poor father has become."

Foreboding.

"I suppose it'll come sooner or later," said Mataafa, gloomily. "A man seldom gets the credit that is really due him in this life."

"What's the matter now?"

"Here I've been stirring up trouble for years. And I shouldn't be a bit surprised if England and Germany and the United States were to come around one of these days and ask me what I meant by trying to interfere in their fight."—Washington Star.

Poor Bilford.

"When Bilford went West he told me that as soon as he had settled down and pulled himself together he would write to me, but I have never heard from him."

"Bilford was blown up in an explosion of dynamite three months ago. He may have settled down, but I don't believe he has pulled himself together yet."—Chicago Tribune.

An Effective Lice Killer.

Some three or four years ago we copied from one of the poultry publications, we think it was the Poultry Monthly, a recipe for a liquid lice killer, which after having been given a fair trial, we found to be one of the best vermin exterminators we have seen, and as the receipe has been carefully preserved ever since, we present it herewith to our readers, recommending them to give it a trial at this the most seasonable time to fight the lice.

The mixure is simply a saturated solution of kerosene oil and naphtalene and is prepared by dissolving about one pound of the napthalene in a gallon of kerosene oil. The solution should be made in a glass or earthen jar and corked tightly as it evaporates very rapidly; after shaking well, allow to stand for two or three days, shaking it occasionally, after which it will be ready for use.

The mode of application is similar to other liquid lice killers, that is by painting the roosts and dropping boards once a week, half a hour before roosting time; which will rid the poultry-house of lice and mites.

The lice on the fowls may be killed by taking a box or barrel and painting the bottom and sides with the liquid and then placing the fowls inside, covering the top with a piece of burlaps, and allowing them to remain for half an hour.

This liquid should not be used on setting hens, neither would we recommend its use in the nest boxes, as the fumes are so strong as to be likely to taint the eggs.

Keep tightly corked when not in use and keep away from the fire, as the solution is highly inflamable.

SHED SKIN 20 TIMES

Little Boy's Terrible Eczema. Mass of Sores from Head to Foot.

Not an Inch of Body Unaffected. Skin Came off with Bandages.

Screams Were Heart-Breaking. 3 Doctors & Institute no Avail.

CURED BY CUTICURA.

My little boy broke out with an itching rash. I tried three doctors and medical college but he kept getting worse. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body unaffected. He was one mass of sores, and the stench was frightful. At the time I was induced to try CUTICURA remedies, he was so bad that I had to cut his hair all off, and put the CUTICURA (ointment) on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. In removing the bandages they would take the skin with them, and the poor child's screams were heart-breaking. After the second application of CUTICURA (ointment) I saw signs of improvement, and the sores began to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but now he is entirely cured. I used CUTICURA RESOLVENT for his blood, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day.
ROBT WATTAM, 4728 Cook St., Chicago, Ill.

CUTICURA
Begins with the Blood and Ends with The Skin and Scalp.

That is to say, CUTICURA RESOLVENT purifies the blood and circulating fluids of HUMOR GERMS, and thus removes the cause, while warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP and gentle anointings with CUTICURA (ointment), greatest of emollient skin cures, cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, allay itching, burning, and inflammation, soothe and heal. Thus are speedily, permanently, and economically cured the most torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail.

They Struck it Rich.

It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising firm as A. I. McCall & Co. secured the Agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the wonderful remedy that has startled the world by its marvellous cures. The furor of enthusiasm over it has boomed their business, as the demand for it is immense. They give free trial bottles to sufferers, and positively guarantee a cure in Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup and all Throat and Lung troubles. A trial proves its merit. Price 50c. and $1.

I like a good book with no commentary, and a fine landscape with no cicerone.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Iw., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me; and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c. at A. I. McCall & Co.'s drug store.

The more personal a good book, the more truly does it reflect its author's day; a second rate book does not bear the impress either of its writer or its time.

WHISKEY MEDICINES.

The temperance press is emphasizing the danger to the home in the use of "medicines" which are loaded with whiskey or alcohol. In this respect, as well as in the remarkable character of their cures, Dr. Pierce's medicines differ from other preparations. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription" contain no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant, and are equally free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Every family should have a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent absolutely free, on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing and customs. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
