( I A FEW STRAIGHT FACTS.

R. L. Borden, leader of the Oppo-sition, speaking at Pembroke on Friday evening, gave the following summary of the record of the Laurier Administration:

"In Opposition the present Liberal leaders declared that Canada's taxation and expenditure were excessive, but since attaining power they have practically doubled both. They railed against the iniquities of the custom tariff, proclaiming emphatically that the protective principle was absorunsound and harmful. In power they have maintained that principle, although, when expedient, they still pose as free traders. They inveighed against corruption and extravagance in the expenditure of public money, but in power they have openly and defiantly encour aged the system of illegitimate profit, commonly called rake-off, which prevails in many public departments They inveighed against any increase of the public debt, and now with abounding revenues they have largely added to it, spending huge sums without regard to public interest, for the benefit of favored partisans. They pledged themselves to maintain the independence of Parliament, yet whenever necessary they retain the votes of wavering followers by direct and even written promises of office. They declared that all pubrage. They pledged themselves to which were ventilated during the past prohibition upon a Dominion plebiscite and when confronted with a found evasion in a condition until cured they regard is as sufficiently amended. They proclaimed high he received it. Even granting that standards for appointments to public he was not aware of the thievery cency when it was necessary to re-ward unserupulous party servants. They promised purity in elections and they have organized, maintained and protected the machine which has

There are no doubt many people in London who are hoping that Hon. Charles Hyman will resign, providing that he runs again, and the election is hilled before the winter sets in. Another ten-spot would come in handy just now, to lay in a supply

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth took part in the North Renfrew by-election, and it is reported that he urged the people not to vote for Gerald White, because he (White) "would not beable to get anything.' The returns show that Mr. White did get something, which Mr. Aylesworth will have to struggle hard for - the approval of the electors.

Another Conservative victory is recorded in North Renfrew. Mr. Gerald White, the winning candihis worthy father, Hon. Peter White, who so ably represented that constituency for so many years. of the defeated Liberal candidates, has taken affidavit that the other man is a rascal. It is a surprise that both of them did not come to this conclusion long ago, for, other wise, how in the world could they have received Liberal nominations for the Dominion House?

No one can fail to understand the victories in East Eigin and North Renfrew. They mean that the Laurier Government has reached the point at which the Ross Government stood when Mr. Dunlop scored his notable triumph in Renfrew and Donald Sutherland carried South Oxford. They are the handwriting on the wall, Usually a Government in Canada carries all before it. It has the prestige and the influence which make for vic-tory. When a Ministry is not only unable to win a by-election, but is in such a helpless plight that a ma-jority of a thousand is rolled up against its nominee in a constituency it once held, it is time for everybody to prepare for a new sot of rulers. THE PEOPLE OF PARIS.

Their First Movements In Revolu-

I know the men of the people in Paris too well not to know that their first movements in times of revolution are usually generous and that they are best pleased to spend the days imme diately following their triumph in boasting of their victory, laying down the law and playing at being great men. During that time it generally happens that some government or other is set up, the police return to their posts and the judge to his bench, and when at last our great men consent to step down to the better known and more vulgar ground of petty and malicious human passions they are no longer able to do so and are reduced to live simply like honest men. Be sides, we have spent so many years in insurrections that there has ariser among us a kind of morality peculiar to times of disorder and a special code for days of rebellion. According to these exceptional laws, murder i erated and havoc permitted, but theft's strenuously forbidden, although this, whatever one may say, does not pre-vent a good deal of pobbery from oc-curring upon those days for the simple reason that society in a state of rebel-lion cannot be different from that at any other time, and it will always conthey are concerned scorn the morality of the main body and despise its point of honor when they are unobserved.— "Recollections of De Tocqueville."

Every night before going to bed apply a good cold cream. Leave it on for a few minutes, then remove with a soft linen rag. You will be surprised and horrified to find how dirty the rag has become. Next wash the face thoroughly in warm water, using a good soap; rinse in warm water and end by dashing cold water well over it. Then rub in a very little cold cream, wiping off any that the skin will not absorb.

which only is to be opened each day. The "alphabet" is started by cutting all kinds of interesting pictures and matter from various magazines. Let us suppose the invalid is fond of art. If so, let A stand for art. Get some nice smooth paper and fold a sheet over as if to fit an envelope. Write on the outside, "A for Art," and gum inside some artistic reproduction (if by a well known artist, write a few items in the "Who's Who?" style).

The envelope is made of bright hued crape paper, cut and folded to shape, but tied with baby ribbon and not sealed, and on the address side is posted a large cut out capital letter. There are lots of interesting subjects for the remaining letters of the alphabet—B, for "bables" or "birds," F for "fun"—any amount of jokes and pictures—M for "music" or even "motors," and the helpful R, for "religion."

Such is the main idea of the "invalid's alphabet," and the weary sufferer will look forward to each day that wit accesses the opening of a fresh envelope.
