

Personal and Social

Mr. L. E. Shaw was in Sydney last week on business.

Mrs. J. J. Ritchie and Miss Cecil Ritchie sailed last week from Halifax for Bermuda.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Phinney had as their guest over the week end Rev. A. L. Huddleston, of Halifax.

Mrs. Clarence Harrison, of Matigerville, N. B., is a guest at the home of Mrs. R. P. Richardson, Ernscliffe avenue.

Miss A. L. M. Blackadder, a former resident of Wolfville, but now of Lawrenceport, was in town a few days last week.

Mrs. Carl Farnsworth and young son left on Thursday last for Cherryfield, Maine, being called there by the illness of Mr. Farnsworth's father.

Mr. Joe England, of Port Williams, and Miss Marjorie Delahunt and her sister Dorothy, motored to Berwick and back on Sunday.

Mr. J. E. Dicketts, former superintendent of the Pacific Cable Board, Auckland, New Zealand, accompanied by Mrs. Dicketts, have been visiting in town, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bars.

Mr. P. E. MacKay, of the C. P. R. cable office, Montreal, arrived in Wolfville on Thursday to take a teaching position at Acadia Academy, relieving Mansel MacLean, B.A., who has accepted a position in Virginia.

Miss Erna Taylor, who has been spending some months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Taylor, Acadia street, since undergoing an operation for appendicitis, left on Friday last to return to Gardner, Mass., to resume her course of training at the hospital in that place.

Mrs. (Dr.) Arthur Estey and son Martin, who have been spending the summer at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Angus Murray, left on Thursday last to return to their home in Lafayette, Ind. They were accompanied by Mrs. Russell Forbes, who will spend a few weeks with her sister.

Mr. Horace E. Reag, of Amherst, a graduate of Acadia University in the class of 1921, has been awarded the Fugatey Scholarship in International Law by the Harvard University faculty. Mr. Reag is one of the three graduate law students receiving scholarship honors and the only Harvard student residing in the Dominion to be accorded an honor this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duncanson and two little daughters, who have been visiting Mrs. Duncanson's mother, Mrs. J. L. Murphy, of this town; also Mr. Duncanson's brothers in this town and in Gaspereau, for two months, have started on the return trip to their home in Oakland, California. They greatly enjoyed their visit among old friends and think our town is progressing fine and enjoyed our Nova Scotia apples and other fruit.

Rev. Douglas Hemmison, D.D., minister of St. Andrew's church, is enjoying a vacation of a few weeks, during which his pulpit is being satisfactorily filled by Rev. J. W. Prestwood, of Hantsport. Rev. Mr. Prestwood was at one time pastor of the Wolfville Methodist church, and has many friends here who are very glad of the privilege of again hearing him. He is a scholarly and interesting speaker whose addresses are always worthy of attention. Next Sunday morning he will speak on "Christianity, the religion for young people."

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Sanford, of the Royal Hotel, accompanied by Mr. A. C. Cox, left yesterday morning for Miami, Florida, where they expect to spend the coming winter. They went by car and plan to motor the entire distance and the trip down will occupy about two weeks. THE ACADIAN will be joined by a host of the residents of Wolfville and vicinity in wishing for our popular townspeople a safe and pleasant journey and an enjoyable winter in that sunny land where winter is unknown. During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford the Royal Hotel will be in charge of Mr. Douglas Neilson, of Montreal, who with Mrs. Neilson, a sister of Mrs. Sanford, has taken up his residence here.

Prof. Roy Ross accompanied the Acadia football team to Fredericton last week.

Miss Virginia Tufts spent last week at Halifax with her grandmother, Mrs. Allison Smith.

Miss Rosamond Archibald delivered a lecture on "Better English" at Bridge-water last Saturday evening.

"WHERE YOU PAY CASH AND PAY LESS" Opening Sale Saturday Was A Big Success

I thank you good people of Wolfville and near-by places for your visit on Saturday to my new store. I also wish you to know how much I value your kindly expressed appreciation of my store and display of merchandise. I can assure you that I shall do my best to merit the many good things you have said about my new store. I want you to feel free to come in at any time and look around. You will not be asked to buy because you come in to look.

Every article is marked in plain figures. Only one price to every customer and every sale is a cash sale. Any article that you purchase that is not satisfactory bring it back and your money will be returned. I sell only first quality goods and stand behind every purchase that leaves the store.

It is the aim of Weaver's Stores to sell standard merchandise at lower prices than usual. Buying for cash and selling for cash I am able to offer you many lines at lower prices.

WEDNESDAY: Acadia Freshmen present a variety Entertainment.

THURSDAY (only) GLORIA SWANSON in THE HUMMING BIRD

(From the play by Maud Fulton.) After "Zaza" which was a tremendous success, Gloria Swanson's follow-up picture had to be, at least, as good. The "Humming Bird" not only is better, but soars to a new high mark for Swanson pictures of all time.
