General Intelligence
LOST IN THE KLONDIKE.
SEVENTEEN GOLD SEEKERS DROWNED AT HOTIUM INLET.
PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Sept. 27.—The steam schooner Fulton, has arrived, fourteen days from Seattle, having encountered severe gales during the voyage.
She brought fifty-nine miners, representing almost every mining district in Alaska. The crew, according to the statement of the purser, has believen $80,000 and $100,000 in gold dust.
Among the passengers were John Emerson, of Minnesota, and Charles Daniels, of Louisiana, who left Zetsebe Sound on Aug. 29. They had been expected almost every steamship enroute to the Sound, but found nothing but small colonies. They had been nothing of the reported strike on the Kowak River. About 1,000 men were on the beach awaiting the steamer, and the miners had their goods which had opened there to catch the train of the miners, had their goods packed ready for shipment to some other point.
Seventeen prospectors are known to have been drowned during the season at Hotium Inlet. Many others are missing. It is supposed they lost their lives in attempting to ascend the small rivers.
Favorable reports from Minnie, the district are brought out. Capt. Robert J.
Danham, of the river scowboat Rideout, says that a number of new strikes along the creeks in that district have been reported and the prospects are most favorable. He also reports the discovery of two veins of coal on the Yukon River, about 900 miles from its mouth. The coal is being mined and sold to the residents at $25 per ton. It will render navigation on the river much cheaper, as wood is scarce and expensive.
During the trip up the river the district paid $4,750 for wood. The coal is mined easily, one man being able to cut out from five to seven tons a day.
State Senator J. W. Range, of Seattle, who is among the returning Dawsonites, said just before leaving Dawson that Col.
Daly, President of the Relief Committee of the combined secret orders, told him that the average death rate was five per cent during the last two months. The highest number of deaths in one day was eighteen.
VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 27.—Sixty-six Klondikers were arrested here in the steamship Horsa. A majority in the papers. Two men, one named William Cameron, from Chicago, and been travelling for a year on the B. C. coast route. They were lost in the R. V. Y. and were on the trail, but only a few could reach Dawson, they say.
Several accidents have occurred recently on the coast. Two men, the sides are anxious for a respite, the one to get the congressional elections in the United States and the other by the elections in Canada over before meeting again.
For yesterday's proceedings of the conference, all that is known is that the two sides met separately in the morning to discuss the Alaskan boundary question and that Senator-General Fitzpatrick appeared before the Canadian commissioners to give his opinion on certain technicalities, while the fact that Mr.
McDonald, the American expert on the subject, has sailed for home revises the impression that the commission has settled the question by agreeing to refer it to an independent tribunal with an advisory committee of three, one from each side, to be chosen by the two governments. The territory from the head of Lynn Canal. Mr. C. S. Hamilton is also leaving town apparently satisfied that the American mining law will not be disturbed, while it is further said that the question of the bonding on railways between the two countries will not come up at all before the commission.
As for the lumber question, the American commissioners are said to have decided to stand by the opinion of Mr.
Tawney, of Minnesota, to negotiate for the free admission of Canadian lumber to the United States only on the condition that some best quality shall be admitted and that Ontario must repeat her regulation prohibiting the export of saw logs. In this connection, the Opponent's paper published a story that the Hon. Messrs. Hardy and Ross left here in high indignation because the Ottawa ministers insisted upon their compliance with the American demand, which would be fatal to their popularity in their own provinces and because they only succeeded in getting the compliance put off until after the by-elections. Needless to say, that, on its very face this story is a fraud.
The Ottawa Government is perfectly independent of the Ottawa Government and the idea of the latter insisting upon the former's compliance with the American demand is altogether preposterous.

THE QUEBEC CONFERENCE.
AN AGREEMENT SAID TO HAVE BEEN REACHED ON SEVERAL POINTS.
QUEBEC, Sept. 27.—It is understood that the new finally settled, after the discussion to be given by the American commissioners to their British and Canadian colleagues on Oct. 9, where the international conference will be adjoined to meet at Washington a month or six weeks later. Several reasons are assigned for this displacement. In the first place, the deliberations of the commissioners were so roiled such a stage that the American commissioners could not consult their government daily.
The Canadian commissioners were more inconvenient and lost of time, while the Canadian commissioners, being mostly lawyers, were not so conversant with the subject as the American commissioners. It is also said that the American commissioners are under no necessity of consulting any
commissioners are anxious of making a proper record in their own papers of the hospitality and the civilities so lavishly showered upon them here. And last, but not least, it is claimed that both
get the congressional elections in the
again.

Canadian colleagues on Oct. 9, where
could not consult their government daily.
proper record in their own papers of
the hospitality and the civilities so lav-
again.
