HELP TO MOTHERS.

Bill Will be Introduced to Provide Instruction.

London, April 21.—With the idea of reducing infant mortality a bill is to be introduced into the House of Commons this session which will enable local au-thorities to give mothers of the working class practical help and instruction in the rearing of their infants.

The public health authority is enabled, if it likes, to provide food, advice and other assistance to poor mothers before the birth of their children and until six months afterward. It may impose terms on the mothers as conditions of their receiving assistance.

All a Boston crook has to do to dis-guise himself is to refuse a plate of baked beans.

This is the time of year when the small boy would rather be a baseball re-porter than President of the United States.

Smithville

REV. J. S. ALLEN, of Toronto, presented two very good sermons in the Presby-terian Church here on Sabbath last. The High and Public Schools opened here on Monday last, Mr. J. C. McKin-son, the principal of the public school, having returned after his holidays.

Death has again been in our midst and removed one of the oldest residents, in the person of Mrs. Jane Lally, at the advanced age of 90 years. Mrs. Lally came to this village in the thirties and had resided here ever since. Mr. Mar-tin Lally, her husband, predeceased her many years, but she still resided on the old homestead. She leaves a family of seven daughters, Mrs. Blake, Misses Julia, Mary F., Ellen, Josephine, Geor-gina and Mrs. Milton McLane, and one son, Thomas, all grown up. She was a woman universally respected and had been an invalid for a number of years. She was interred in the R. C. Cemetery here on Tuesday last.

Rev. Archibald Thompson, B. D., of Rothsay, will preach in the Presby-terian Church here on Sabbath next, and the following Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.

Mr. James Patterson, of Gainsboro, passed away very suddenly, at his resi-dence, on Tuesday last, aged 85 years. He got out of bed and had fallen to the floor. He called to his son, who ran in, picked him up and got him into bed be-fore he became unconscious. He never rallied and passed away in a couple of hours. His funeral took place at the Methodist Cemetery on Thursday, fol-lowed by a large concourse of friends and acquaintances. Rev. J. M. Harth conducted the funeral services at the house.

Messrs. Vine and Nevilles shipped a very large load of hogs from this sta-tion on Monday last, at $7.15 per cwt. Division Court will be held here on Wednesday, May 19, at 9 a. m. A large number of friends from a dis-tance attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Lally on Tuesday last.

Mr. Charles Boulter and his mother are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boulter this week.

Attercliffe

Miss Anna Tefft is improving slowly, but is very weak.

Mrs. Edward Angle has returned from a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Dillit, of Port Clerit.

Our church people enjoyed another good sermon last Sunday morning by Pastor Copeland, from John x. 19.

Mrs. Joseph Moyer, of Moulton, is not improving and is very low.

Miss Jessie Heaslip, of Dunnville, is making a short visit with friends in this village.

No end to the rush of work in the wagon and carriage business here.

The fifty-sixth reunion of the Cohoe family will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Carle, one mile east of Attercliffe, on the Canboro road, on Wednesday, the 12th day of May. Rel-atives and friends are respectfully in-ited to attend.

Alberton

The funeral of the infant daughter of K. and Mrs. Vanderlip took place last Saturday afternoon to St. Andrew's Church cemetery, Ancaster. Rev. Mr. Webster officiated.

Ed. and Mrs. Curran and Master Stan-ley spent a couple of days this week at W. Arrol's, Hamilton.

G. N. and Mrs. Peer and E. More were Sunday visitors at A. J. Vanderlip's.

Mrs. T. Lane is under the doctor's care.

The members of Court Alberton are requested to remember the date of next Meeting—April 27.

Sacramental services were held in the church here on Sunday.

Mr. Perry VanSickle has returned from a term spent at Agricultural College, Guelph.

Sunday was the occasion of another death in the locality, when Miss Mary Ann Best, succumbed to an illness of many weeks' duration. The interment takes place this afternoon in St. John's cemetery, Ancaster.

Inspector J. H. Smith was a welcome visitor at the school on Tuesday after-noon.

Valens

Mr. Archie McKellar spent Easter with his sister, Mr. Dr. A. E. Mott, of Akron, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. McDowell, of Georgetown, were guests over Easter with their daughter, Mrs. A. Robson.

Mrs. Adam Valens has returned home after visiting a week with her mother, Mrs. Robt. Young, of Salt. She was accompanied by Miss Anna Young.

Mr. Evans Valens, who has spent the past fourteen months in Mexico, has re-turned home.

Mrs. Coburn spent the latter end of last week with friends in Hamilton.

Master Wm. Gilbert, of Hamilton Col-lege, spent the Easter vacation at his home here.

Mrs. John Valens has quitted Mr. Bower Good for the ensuing year.

Miss Tennie Gilmore has returned home after visiting with relatives in Hamilton.

Miss Mabel Coverdale is under the doctor's care, suffering with bronchitis. A very pretty wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage, Freehon, on Thursday at 4 p. m., the contracting parties being Miss Orpha Howl, of Valens, and Mr. Thos. McBean, of Kirk-wall. After the wedding dinner the happy couple left for Toronto and Niag-ara Falls. Their many friends join in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

The April meeting of the Kirkwall and Valens Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Jamieson, Kirk-wall, on Tuesday, April 20, with a large number present.

The Widow Protection.

The porter inserted a fresh boot in the electrical polishing machine.

"I'll tell you a funny thing about a widow," he said. "She is a regular visitor to our hotel, and she always brings here with her an old pair of her dead husband's boots. He must have been a whopper, the dead man. His boots are genuine moccasins."

"The widow is very timid. She is afraid of being broken in upon by hotel thieves in the dead of night. So every morning she puts before her door, beside her own 'lirty boots, the boots of the departed. She thinks they scare off thieves." From the New Orleans Times-Democrat.

NEW CENTRAL PRISON PLAN. Reformatory and Farm Features of the Proposition. As already stated, plans for the new Central Prison, or "Provincial Reforma-tory," as it has been suggested to call it, have been prepared for the Ontario Government by Mr. J. M. Lyle, architect, Toronto, and will be considered by the Cabinet in a few days. It is understood that the removal of the present Central Prison will mark the beginning of a new and radical policy in the treatment of all offences ex-cept those that result in imprisonment in the penitentiary, which is under the control of the Dominion Department of Justice. A system such as has been perfected by Mr. Leonard, head of the great farm reformatories at Mansfield, Ohio, is under consideration for Ontario, and may include, as soon as the
