The Tussock moths are very easy to get rid of if intelligent methods are adopted. The female has no wings, and comes out of her cocoon during Angust, and lays a mass of eggs on the cocoon, which she covers with a white, frothy-looking substance, and then drops to the ground and dies.

Scarlet Fever More Prevalent Than Ever In City's History.

No Political Pull In Matter of Filling Lots.

NOT FATAL

Sand Filter Continues to Do Excellent Work.

NUMEROUS:

The scarlet fever epidemic, which has been very prevalent in Hamilton for the last ten months, is the worst the city vent the spread of the disease, but it shows no sign of abating, and the records reveal the fact that there have been over twice the number of cases reported last year. Complete records will probably bring the number much higher, as Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, discovered during the past week a number of cases that were not reported. He has threatened to take drastic action if there is further cause for complaint in this respect. For ten months last year, from October to July, 138 cases were reported, as compared with 295 for the same period last year. In previous years there has always, been a big falling off in the number of cases as the warm weather approached. Not so this year, however. In June and July of last year only five cases were reported. In the same month this year, 52. Fortunately, the death rate is very low, the disease proving fatal in only two or three cases. The following statistics show how ineffectual the efforts have been so far to check this year's epidemic:

As a result of the complaint registered by Ald. Cooper, instructions were sent out by City Engineer Macallum this morning to the city ward foremen ordering them to make a report at the end of each week of lots where they dumped earth or material taken off the city streets. It was charged that one of the foremen was using the material to fill in his own lots and those of some of his friends. The rule has been for ward foremen to fill in lots for any citizens, if the haul is not too long. Mr. Macallum pointed out that it was a acry easy matter for foremen to fill in lots for their political friends. "And political pull won't go here," he said.

tussock moths if the shade trees of the city are to be saved. Information has been received from the experimental farm at Gueloh that a second crop of the moths will be hatched out shortly and that now is the time to get after them. The department expects to arrange to get a number of sprayers working next week.

Myles Hunting, caretaker of the 11-tering basins, was at the City Hall this morning and reported that the sandsuck-er is doing excellent work. The filtering capacity of the basins will be increased twenty-five per cent. when the job is Building permits were issued to-day to Robert Somerville, for a brick cottage on Harvey street, between Sanford and Stirton avenue for John Somerville, to cost $700, and to Stewart & Witton for brick additions and alterations to Duncan's store, corner York and James streets, to cost $3,000.

Building permits issued during July aggregated in value $205,475, or an increase of $49,225 over the corresponding month, a year ago.

It is understood that Martin Malor has abandoned the intention of taking injunction proceedings to quash the con tract with the Cataract Company for a tract with the Cataract Company for a year's supply of power for the mountain waterworks system. Mr. Malone, it is said, intends instead of applying for an injunction to take proceedings against the individual aldermen.

Regarding the complaint registered by Ald. Cooper yesterday about a city employee using material off the streets to fill in his lots. Mayor McLaren said to-day "Ald. Cooper told me that bricks and stones that could be used on the streets were used to fill in some of the lots. Speculators have made a habit of buying low lots and using the city to fill them in We intend stopping it."

SNOW IN JULY.

Omaha, Neb., July 31.—The nnusual spectacle of snow falling in July in Omaha occurred during an electrical storm last night, which followed an extremely hot day. The flakes fell intermittently for nearly ten minutes.

The storm was accompanied by a violent wind, which upset five rowboats on Lake Nakoma and 15 persons were rescued from drowning with launches.

The remains were brought to this city and taken to J. H. Robinson & Co.s. chapel, and the funeral took place this afternoon from there.

BUCKET SHOPS

To be Operated in New York and Canada.

New York, July 30 .- The American publishes New York, July 20.—The American publishes a report of a plan to operate a chain of bucket shops in New York, with branches throughout the entire state and Canada, which, it says, has been disclosed to the officials of the Consolidated Stock Exchange. The backers of the schme are said to be a coterie of powerful New York city politicians.

The head and front of the enterprise in this city is Richard E. Preusser, who shot and killed Myles McDonald, a Hariem gambler. In Albany five years ago.

MOULDERS' PICNIC.

Two weeks from to-day, Saturday, August 14, the International Iron Moulders' Unions, Hamilton and Toronto, will hold a great demonstration and picnic at the Mountain View Park. Sister unions from many parts of Ontario will be present and it will be an event of unusual importance. The prizes, for which there is to be a drawing, are on exhibition at 37 MacNab street north, The committee has arranged that the admission tickets will also include incline railway fare.

MAPLE LEAF PARK.

MAPLE LEAF PARK.

Maple Leaf Park should be largely patronized on Monday. In the afternoon the Capitals, of Hamilton, and the Chippewas, of Toronto, line up at 3 o'clock to try conclusions at lacrosse. The rivalry between the two teams is very keen and the game should provide plenty of amusement. In the evening a spectacular fireworks display will be given and it is expected that bumper crowds will turn out to see the exhibition.

This afternoon children will be admitted to the park free. The great Berry family, in the free act, are said to be among the finest of its kind playing summer parks.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) St. Catharines, Ont., July 31.-Canadian Canners, Limited, No. 19, which, it would be expected, would which, it would be expected, would be in operation shortly, is this morning a mass of ruins. The factory, which was a large one, was located at the corner of Page and Queenston streets, and for some time preliminary work was being done preparing for the opening. At 4 o'clock this morning, however, flames were seen issuing from the receiving building, a frame structure, west of the main factory, and separated from it by a driveway.

factory, and separated from it by a driveway.

A strenuous fight was put up by the firemen, but they were unable to save the building and at 10 o'clock this morning, although the firemen are still working, what was formerly an important industry giving employment to a large number of operatives, lies in ruins. Supt. Danzier states that $45,000 worth of manufactured goods and about the same amount in cans were in the building. The factory and plant it is thought were worth $30,000. The amount of insurance carried could not be ascertained.

Perhaps this summer has meant the opening of life's paradise for you; perhaps it has taught you a bitter lesson. In either case you must be a woman and accept your joy or sorrow gratefully or with patience. Keep your eyes open, and do not stumble blindly ahead trusting to luck to guide you into paths of happiness.

Girls are allowed more liberty in the aummer than at other seasons, and you must remember that and keep your wits about you.

What girl has some man attentive to her. What sort of man is attentive to you?

What do you know about him? Are you sure he is an unmarried man and that he is free to pay attention to you? Are you sure that he is sober and industrious, and that you are not throwing yourself away on a good-for-nothing? He may be a stalwart Adonis-in looks and yet have the soul of a mouse and it is the soul, not the looks, which means future happiness for you. structure to produce a neutral stability which renders the wince building least sensible to earthquake snock.

In the hollow well of every five-storeyed pagoda a heavy mass of timber is suspended freely, like an exaggerated tongue; from the top right to the ground, but not in centact with it, and at the shock of an earthquake this large pendulum slowly swings, the structure sways, and then settles back safely upon its base.

This is also the principle followed in the construction of all bell-towers throughout Japan, where the bell acts as pendulum, and the roof, supported by posts, forms an inverted pendulum, as in the seismograph.

When an earthuake occurs, a pagoda or a bell-tower may be rotated or dispiaced, but it cannot be overturned as a whole. In Simila the motion of the ground on April 4th, 1905, was about two inches, and it would require a metion of several feet to overturn a big body.—Lady Lawson in the August Wide World Magazine.

In the same country Gabriele d'Ammurico has declared that his next tragedy shall be for presentation by this device. Here our dramatists are still writing for the theatres, and the dramas that have been transferred to the moving picture halls have usually been appropriated without permission or have outlived their usefulness in the better theatres, which have not been in the least affected by this cheaper competition.

In none of the other countries of Europe has the victory of the moving picture shows been so great as in Italy.
