GRIDIRON GOSSIP

A section will be reserved for the rooters for the Thanksgiving Day game, and those who intend to join the club should have their seats reserved in this section. The plan will open to morrow morning at Stanley Mills'. Some people are under the impression that the holiday game is only an exhibition affair, which is wrong. It will be a league game, the schedule date being changed from Saturday to Monday. Sixty reserved seats have been set aside for the officers of the various regiments, who will attend the game in uniform after the sham fight.

The team had a work-out at the Oricket Grounds last night, and in the opinion of the crities the players are in the best of condition. Jack Gray has stully recovered and his back is now as strong as ever. "Liz" Marriott has been practising faithfully, and it is likely that he will be in the game on Monday.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—With the game scheduled for Saturday transferred to the following Monday, Montreal will probably work in an extra practice this week, so the team should be in tip-top form for the struggle with the Tigers. Signal drill was gone through last night and bright and early this morning the seniors and intermediates will line out against each other on the Westmount field. This would ordinarily be the fast practice, but it was practically decided vesterday to have signal drill again Friday night and then a practice at the grounds, after the intermediate and junior games Saturday afternoon. Pat Reiffenstein may be unable to get away with the team when it leaves on Sunday, in which case Ward would go back into the line. There is now a three-cornered fight for the left half-back position. Jimmy Riddell, who has been showing good form with the intermediates: Hugh Scott, and Billy Craig are the candidates. Craig has been played in two games and Scott in one this year. Riddell is the speedlest of the three, and his handling of the ball has attracted favorable notice in recent practices, as well as in the intermediate game with Ottawa here last Saturday.

Toronto, Oct. 21.—A general meeting of the O. R. F. U. was held at the King Edward last night, when President A. R. Denison presented two very handsome cups to be held permanently by this year's senior and junior champions. The presentation was enthusiastically received and a resolution of appreciation passed. The secretary's report showed the union to be gaining in strength, with three senior and thirteen junior teams competing. Parkdale's showing as a senior team was commented on as an example of what could be accomplished by perseverance and a club spirit. The meeting was a large and healthy one. A report has been asked for on the I. A. A. C.-Y. M. C. A. junior game, where the score has been questioned. W. Marsden, of the Aura Lee Club, will be asked to make a declaration regarding his amateur standing.

Walter Nixon, of the Ottawa Executive, who has been following Rugby in that city for twenty years, thinks that the present team is the best that ever represented the capital.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 21.—Hope for the recovery of Midshipman Earl D. Wilson, quarterback of the navy football team, who was injured in the Villa Nova game last Saturday, was practically abandoned this afternoon. A statement was issued from the paval hospital to the effect that at a consultation of seven physicians it was decided that an operation was not advisable. It was added that the patient's condition is "very serious and there is little hope of recovery."

Wilson was injured in stopping a long run of the opposition halfback after a sorre had been made and another touchdown was being worked down the field. Wilson, by a flying tackle through two interfering men who were helping Barry, stopped the play within a few yards of navy's goal.

When the mass of players was untangled, he was found at the bottom of the pile, unconscious. Paralysis developed almost at once and since Saturday Willalmost at once and since Saturday Willalmo

HEBOWS TO TORONTO PRESIDENT

This is "Chubby Charley" Murphy, as some of the Chicago newspaper men named the owner of the Cubs, who has been handed a $500 fine by the National Commission for trying to entice Pitcher Jeff Pfeffer away from the Toronto

Commission for trying to entice Pitcher Jeff Pfeffer away from the Toronto team.

Everybody knows the story by this time. Mr. Murphy is being laughed at by friends and enemies whenever the incident is mentioned.

He is rather a smooth man, is Mr. Murphy, though a trifle top-heavy, it is said. In this case Mr. Murphy walked too fast, and it was James J. Mc-Caffery who stopped him up.

The Pfeffer telegram happened to be opened by the Maple Leaf president. It read:

"West Side Ball Park, Chicago, Sept. 9, 1909.—Frank Pfeffer, Toronto Baseball (Ilub, Toronto: If possible for you to get away, I would like to have your help during the rest of the season.—Charles W. Murphy, President."

Mr. McCaffery saw the dodge, and he told Mr. Murphy so. He also told the National Commission, and from that hour until the Cub president sullenly backed down, he was in the hottest kind of water.

After being fined, his obstinacy threatened to put his Cubs out of business for a while.

He was given seventy-two hours in which to hand over $500 to the Toronto club. After a big noise about it, he did. President McCaffery didn't want the money. He had told the commission: "It is not the loss that is bothering us; it is the principle of Mr. Murphy's high-handed action."

So he handed the money over to charity, the Hospital for Disabled Ball-players getting the benefit.

The commission was very serious about the matter. Here is what they said about it:

"It is rather a peculiar condition, taking Mr. Murphy's explantion of the matter, and the commission can cometo no other conclusion than that the actions of Mr. Murphy in this case were contrary to all baseball law and custom, and therefore should not go unnoticed. A fine of $500 will be inflicted against the Chicago club, this money to be paid to the Torouto club as damages.

"Notice is now served that a repetition by any club owner of an offence of this kind will be met with a penalty of the severest character."

Thursday, Oct. 21.—The dismal weather throughout the night was largely responsible for the very small offering of produce on the Central market this morning. In the meat market a fair supply of dressed hogs resulted in the prices dropping nearly 50 cents, the new price being from $10 to $10.50. The poultry market was not nearly as large as was expected, but was sufficient to supply the demand, which was poor. A few loads of turkeys were in, but most of them had been previously ordered, and were delivered at once. The others were offered for 18 to 22 per lb. An extra large offering is expected on Saturday. The lack of deliveries of Ontario oats in the grain market raised the price two cents, the dealers now offering 40 cents per bushel. There was very little fruit in, and the market as a whole was poor. No other noticeable changes took place and the current prices this morning GRAND TRUNK. Sir Charles Rivers Wilson Presided

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal.—At the Canadian Pacific live stock market the offerings this morning consisted of 1,200 cattle, 500 sheep, 700 lambs, 1,000 hogs and 400 calves. Supplies were not excessive, and a firm feeling prevailed. The demand was good from both local and outside buyers, and an active trade was done. The offerings consisted largely of northwest ranch stock, of which the quality was fully up to the average. Choice steers sold at 5 to 5 1-4c; good at 4 1-2 to 4 3-4c; fair at 4 to 4 1-4c; medium at 3 1-2 to 3 3-4c; good cows at 4 to 4 1-2c; common at 3 to 3 3-4c; bulls at 2 1-2 to 3 1-2c, and canners at 1 3-4c per lb. A firmer feeling developed for lambs on account of smaller supplies and a good leal demand for the same, and sales were made at 5 3-4c per lb. The market for sheep was firm, but prices showed no change, sales being made at 3 1-2c per lb. Calves were scarce, for which the demand was good and sales of choice stock were made at $12 to $15, and lower grades from that down to $3 cach. Owing to the small run of hogs, prices showed an advance of 25c per cwt. An active trade was done. Sales of selected lots were made at $8.75 to $9 per cwt., weighed off the cars. At the Montreal stock yards, west end market, supplies of live stock for local consumption consisted of 350 cattle, 300 sheep and lambs, 350 hogs and 100 calves. Hogs advanced 25c per cwt., with sales of selected lots at $8.50 per cwt., withsele of the cars. In other lines a fair trade was done at much the same prices as quoted above.

WE LIKE IT

We like this rough weather for one, Winter Shoes, because they are made solid all through—made to stand the rough weather. Oak leather outer and inner soles, and leather heel stiffness. We do not buy through jobbers, but have our shoes made special for us, and consequently get a much better shoe. J. D. CLIMIE 30 and 32 King West
