pleasant evening's program. Heraldisms.

Ash Wednesday was generally observed in all the churches. The Steadman vs Sun case will come up for hearing during the Easter term. There is talk of establishing a branch of the reformed Baptist church in this city. Don't forget the liberal party meet this evening in their rooms at Fisher's building. The ticket proceeds of the concert in aid of the Victoria hospital amounted to $144.95.

The Normal school students will hold a debate in the hall of the building on Friday Rev. J. A. Logan of Acadia mines N. S. will occupy the pulpit at St. Pauls to-morrow (Sunday).

Work on the highway bridge has been completed and traffic will probably be resumed on Monday. An offer has been made to Prof. Buell of tons of Canadian scenery. A branch of the Epworth league has been organized at Nashwaak village in connection with the Methodist church. There were two runaways in Phoenix square Monday morning. Both horses were captured down York street. No damages. The county commissioners for York in the coming census are G. Hatt, and John Black of this city. Col. Beer of Sussex is province commissioner. At the Toronto conservatory of music
