FREDERICTON, DECEMBER 14, 1895.

THE TROUBLE AT OTTAWA.

Clarke Wallace is evidently awaking to Grand Lodge al Halifax, last summer. he will not be equal to the occasion.

In the meantime, the situation at Ottawa is growing more and more uncertain, and the ministers are in terror of meeting parliament. They do not know what moment they may have to pack up and get out of their offices, to which they have clung tenaciously. The whole country is watching with keenest interest, the gathering storm. It is useless for the government to attempt to draw the public eye off the main question, by talking tariff, the Australian cable, and the fast steamship service. They have made the school question the issue; they have called a special session of parliament to deal with the matter, and the outcome cannot be foretold. Since the above was written, our despatches from Ottawa, report the resignation of Mr. Wallace, the beginning of the end of Tory rule in Canada.

The news of Hon. Clarke Wallace's resignation from the Dominion government, exclusively published in Fredericon Tuesday by the DAILY HERALD, and Thursday, has created a panic in Tory Domville. circles from one end of the country to the

Mr. Wallace, as is well known, has for several years been head of the Orange order in Canada, and no doubt it was for this reason that he was taken i o the government. The Tories have prided themselves on their ability to nicely balance the orange and green in their cabinet selections, but the scale hangs very unevenly at the present moment.

Mr. Wallace, when interviewed at Toronto on his resignation, said: "I remained in the government until I felt satisfied that it was intended to coerce Manitoba into the re-establishment of separate schools. So long as I thought there was a possibility of the question being amicably adjusted between the provincial and dominion, I was quite satisfied to continue in my official position. but the last few days have brought about new developments, and, can no longer remain comptroller of customs. I shall retain my seat in parliament, of course, and shall go into Cardwell during the ed several hundred. campaign. As to my future course, I prefer to say nothing."

The Orange Sentinel, organ of that order in Canada, backs Mr. Wallace up in his action, and in its issue to-day declares "It is now open war between the dominion government and Manitoba, and Grand Master Wallace has determined to resign his office as controller of customs and to join forces with those who are fighting Manitoba's battle. We congratulate the grand master on his determination, and pledge him the utmost support of the Sentinel in the position he has taken-a position that involves a great sacrifice on his part, but means certain victory for the prairie province in her struggle to maintain the little red school house." The government are placed in an awkward position. Last July, Hon. Mr. Angers withdrew because he considered his coland now Mr. Waltace, the Orange leader, leaves the fast decaying administration, because he thinks they are sacrificing his ultra-Protestant friends. Mr. Pitts should get out a special edition of the Reporter, rogues fall out, honest men get their due, death. and the events at Ottawa seem to point in

NEW SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

THE local government at its session last night, appointed Mr. J. W. Spurden and Mr. Willard Kitchen to be members of the Fredericton Board of School Trustees, in place of Hon. A. F. Randolph and Mr. J. L. Inches, resigned.

The selections we believe, will meet with the general approval of the citizens. Both gentlemen are recognized as shrewd and successful in business, and have a material stake in the community. What is wanted at the Board is practical common sense, a level judgment. and intelligence, and in all these requisites the new rustees fill the bill.

The government, while failing to comply with the memorial requesting them to appoint a lady trustee, gave the general uestion some consideration, and it is unerstood that at the next session of the egislature, a law may be passed providing for the increase of school boards in all the owns and cities of the province by two members each, both of whom shall be women-one to be appointed by the government, and the other by the town or city council as the case may be.

A NUMBER of prominent Halifax men the fact that the government has been are moving for the erection of a monufooling him on the school policy. He is ment to the late Hon. Joseph Howe, the reported to have gone to his home at cleverest public man ever reared in Nova Woodbridge, in the sulks, and if he has Scotia. The only practical tribute yet inaugurated to Howe's memory, is in the This is Mr. Wallace's opportunity for Victoria Park at Truro, where a small fame, but even his warmest admirers fear monument has been erected in honor of Nova Scotia's most distinguished so.

THERE are now three vacancies in the Dominion government—the portfolios of Agriculture, Solicitor-Generalship and Comptrollership of customs. A spirit of resignation, but not the kind our Tory friends desire, seems to prevail in the shaky old Cabinet at Ottawa.

MR. FOSTER is so soon to lose his job at Ottawa, that we suggest to the Westmorland Scott Act party the desirability of securing his services as lecturer in the approaching campaign in that county. No doubt he would be willing to engage at the old price of $10 per night.

THE St. John Gazette, a Tory organ, bewails the need that city has for more industrial establishments and more employment for the people. What is the matter with the glorious N. P.?

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

The Nuptials of Miss Emily Macdonald and Rev. A. B. Murray,

CELEBRATED AT ST. ANN'S WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The Guests and Presents

A wedding which has been exciting when Miss Emily A. A. Macdonald, niece of Rev. Canon Roberts, was led to the altar by Rev. Alex. Bloomfield Murray, rector of Stanley.

The church was nicely decorated with flowers for the occasion, and was crowded to the doors. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Canon Roberts. The bride looked very charming in a costume of ivory-white brocade, with train, trimmed with honiton lace real orange blossoms; a bouquet, white roses and ferns, and brooch, the gift of the Scotch stones.

who wore dresses of cream-colored tamisse, trimmed with cream satin; large hats of the same; flowers, yellow chrysanthemums; pearl pins, the gift of the groom The groomsman was Rev. Clarence P. Hanington, and the ushers, W. C. Roberts, and G. R. Macdonald.

The bride was given away by her brother, S. A. R. Macdonald. The hymns sung during the service were: "The Father all creating," were sung during the service, and Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Miss Carman. That the wedding was a very pretty one, was the unanimous opinion of the large number of persons who witnessed it. After the ceremony the bridal party breakfasted at the bride's home, Mrs. John Robinson's residence, George street, and the following were among the guests: Bishop and Mrs. Kingdon

And there is no concern in the city that has made the rapid stride in business that this firm has in the last few years: it has been one grand success. On entering the store we find on one side, books of all kinds suitable for presents for the old and young, all marked in plain figures so any one that wishes can go along and make their own selections. On the other side of the store is kept the fancy goods, and without doubt the show this year surnuch interest in Fredericton social circles passes any former year, both in quantity for the past few weeks, was celebrated at and finish.
