

LOCAL & OTHER ITEMS

Earthquakes and tidal waves have lately caused much destruction to life and property in Japan and adjacent islands.

In consequence of the wretched condition of the roads the attendance at the market yesterday was very small.

In consequence of the storm Saturday the Earl Grey did not go to Picton. She started Sunday morning and returned Monday forenoon.

In consequence of the snow blockade on the railway between Tormentine and Sackville N.B. we had no mails by the western route yesterday.

The Government steamer, Stanley, is to make a trip to the Magdalen Islands, carrying mails. It is expected that she will leave North Sydney tomorrow.

Canada will put up a $600,000 building with a first class display of products at the Panama Exhibition in San Francisco, next year.

The Federal Parliamentary session opens at Ottawa tomorrow. We shall endeavor to furnish our readers with a fair summary of the session's proceedings from week to week.

Dr. Granov, Italian Medical Emigration Officer, on the North German Lloyd steamer Berlin, bound for New York from Naples was murdered by an emigrant while on the Mediterranean.

The cold weather we are experiencing these days is only the tail end of the wave sweeping over the country. 27 below was registered in Montreal yesterday and 25 below in Toronto.

Holes were bored in the skull of a man in Philadelphia Monday and serum applied direct to the brain in the first case of the kind in the States for treatment of paresis.

Nine horses were burned to death Saturday evening in a blaze in a stable near the Montreal stock yards. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

A Cleveland, Ohio, despatch says: One million men in iron, steel and metal trades are idle in the States today. Also 270,000 miners are idle. The wage losses are computed at $62,000,000 a month.

At Babylon Long Island N. Y. on Monday, Patrick Horan an aged park keeper was gored to death in a fight with a herd of maddened deer. His body was so cut up by hoofs and antlers as to be scarcely recognizable.

A Toronto despatch says the Ontario Government may grapple with the monopoly in the fish business. Report says that Canadian fish are being sent to supply the United States demand. An export duty may be put on.

The Supreme Court met here at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Chief Justice Sullivan presiding. The docket is a small one. There are no criminal cases and only one Grand Jury case and a small number of petit jury cases.

Nearly 300,000 bushels of Argentine corn were landed in New York Saturday and millions more from the South American republic are under contract. The importations are the direct result of the removal of the duty on that staple under the recent tariff act.

The snow storm which set in during Friday night last and lasted all day Saturday, Saturday night and Sunday was quite severe. About two feet of snow fell and roads were pretty well blocked. Some trains were considerably delayed Saturday and Monday because of the drifts along the line.

A stranger in Rahway, N. J. bought a bag of potatoes and a 15-pound ham at a grocery store the other day and left them on the back doorstep of an aged resident, Thompson Thorne. With the supplies was this note: "This is returned to you to day in honor of the 51st anniversary since you gave the same to an old, hungry soldier at Valley Springs, Va. during the rebellion."

DIED

McLAREN—At Charlottetown on the 13th inst. Mrs. R. McLaren, wife of Mr. Robert D. McLaren.

DODD—At the home of his sister, Mrs. Susan Lane, Hermitage Jan 9th, 1914, John Dodd, aged 81 years.

McLEOD—At the residence of her sister, Miss Catherine McLeod, Montague, Miss Mary McLeod, aged 76 years.

MURRAY—In this city on the 13th inst. William Murray, baker, aged 90 years. Deceased was one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of our city. Mr. Murray came out to this Island from Ireland in 1839 in the ship Agitator with his parents. With them he proceeded to Lot 65 where he remained a short time, afterwards coming to Charlottetown where he learned the baking trade and in 1855 he started the excellent bakery which he has since conducted on the corner of Fowling and Dorchester streets. Mrs. Murray predeceased him about fourteen years ago, and his eldest son William about a year and a half ago. He leaves to mourn one son Dr. J. P. Murray and one daughter Mary. These have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. May his soul rest in peace.

Reasons Why The
C. B. C. Is The Best

The Charlottetown Business College's claims of superiority are not based on hot air, bombast or broadside bragging.

The equipment of this college is complete in every respect. There are enough typewriters, forms, etc., for every student, and therefore none are kept back and none especially favored. The teachers are the best that can be secured and the location ideal—right in the heart of the business district—the courses plain, practical and full of "usable" knowledge.

Students who graduate from this institution are QUALIFIED to cope with any problem that is placed before them in actual practice. This institution is the only one in the Province to turn out successful verbatim reporters.

The courses cover bookkeeping, auditing, type writing, shorthand, brokerage, banking, business correspondence, navigation, engineering and Civil Service preparatory exams.
