GOULD, KINDALL & LINCOLN or GOULD, KINDALL & LINCOLN are happy to announce that they have completed arrangements with Mesers. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for the re-pablication, in semi-monthly numbers, of Chambers Miscellary.

The design of the Miscellary is to supply the increasing demand for useful, instructive, and entertaining reading, and to bring all the side of literature to bear on the cultivation of the feelings of the people—to impress correct views on important moral and social questions—suppress every species of strife and savagery—cheer the lagging and desponding, by the relation of takes drawn from the imaginations of popular writers—rouse the fancy by descriptions of interesting foreign scenes—give a zest to every-day occupations by bulled and brical poetry—in short, to furnish an unobtrusive friend and guide, a lively fireside wompanion, as far as that object can be attained through the instrumentality of books.

The mixersally acknowledged merits of the Cyclopenda of English Letrarature, by the same suthor, connected with its rapid sale, and the unbounded commendation bestowed by the press, give the publishers full confidence in the real value and entire success—of the present work.

The publication has already commenced, and

The publication has already commenced, and The publication has already commenced, an will be continued semi-monthly. Each number will form a complete work, and every third number will be furnished with a title page and tabl of contents, thus forming a beautifully illustrated volume of over 500 pages of useful an entertaining reading, adapted to every class or readers. The whole to be completed in THIRTI SUBBERS, forming Ten elegant Volumes.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
We are glad to see an American issue of this peblication, and especially in so neat and convenient a form. It is an admirable complistion, distinguished by the good taste which has been shown in all the publications of the Mesers. Chambers. It unites the useful and the estretaining. We hope its circulation here will be large enough to supplant, to a good extent, the namby-pamby and immoral works which have so long been too widely circulated.

From the Boston Chronotype. This is deservedly a great favorite with the reading public, suiting the taste of all classes and instructive to all.

and instructive to all.

This work can be sent by mail to any part of the country. A direct remittance to the publishers of Six Dollars will pay for the entire work. This liberal discount for advance pay will nearly cover the cost of postage on the work. Those wishing for one or more sample numbers can remit them accordingly.
