WETASKIWIN. Bulletin News Service.

The Wetaskiwin Fair, which wa The Wetaskiwin Fair, which was held on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week goes down into history as by far the best ever given in the Wetaskiwin district. Nearly all the classes were well filled, and it was no small task for the judges to make the awards. There were one hundred and twenty-five horses, and nearly one hundred and fifty head of cattle cnt-25th of this month. grand stand, making a procession nearly half a mile in length. The all well contested, and the crowd apbeared to be pleased with the attractions provided. In the baseball match, Wetaskiwin won from Crooked Lake by the score of 13-9. The teams were very evenly matched, and the score was a tie just prior to the last innings. Dances were held in Angus hall each evening of the fair.

J. F. Franklin, of the Merchants Bank staff, who has been here for several years, left on Thursday morning for Lethbridge, where he has been promoted to the managership of a branch being opened up in that vicini-ty. A farewell dance was held in Angus' hall on Monady evening, when a large number of his friends were in attendance. Mr. Franklin was very popular in the city, and all join in ngratulating him on his pro business is booming, and he will remove his family to Edson as soon as a suitable house can be had. Mrs. E. H. O'Brien and family left for Taber on the early train Wednes-day morning. She will visit her sister, Mrs. W. Walker. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Odell of rea

John Carney of Tofield, is in the city this week spending a brief vacation renewing acquaintances. Jos. Trca left on Thursday morning for Bowden, where he will remain for several days on business.

What might easily have been a fatal accident happened on Wednesday morning to a party of four young men when a motor car, driven by G. H. West, turned the corner of Alberta street and Dickson avenue too speedistreet and Dickson avenue too speedly by the result that one of the rear, wheels gave way, throwing all the occupants heavily to the ground. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, and but slight damage was done to the car.

Tom Fraser, who has been the obliging manager of the Hutchin's book store for the past year, left the city on Tuesday, and will spend a month's exaction, with relatives at Calgary before accepting another situation.

W. Smuck of the Driard Hotel was at Edmonton the fore part of the week The local Conservatives, who were on, held a torch-light parade Friday evening. After parading the principal streets headed by the band, a halt was made in front of the Driard Hotel, and several addresses were delivered from the balcony. Among the speakers were Mayor Fowler, M. McNicol and Geo. B. Campbell.

A shocking accident happened at the water tank five miles north of the city on Thursday afternoon when the afternoon train ran over and instantly killed a young man named McLaren, who had charge of the tank. It appears that he had been in the habit of catching the afternoon train and re-turning to his home at Leduc, but on this occasion he missed his hold and was thrown under the wheels. his dy being cut in two. The remains are conveyed to Leduc by the same train that killed him. The accident is very pathetic, as his young wife left recently on a visit to the old home in Another very sudden death took when Mr. W. Thompson, who recently arrived from England, passed away while talking to his son in the harvest field. He was sitting on the binder at the time, and without a moment's warning he collapsed. On being carried to the house it was found that life was extinct. Stopping before one school, the leader, a boy of 13, demanded of the caretaker that the boys of his school be called out. A command of the caretaker to move on, accompanied by an energetic kick, discouraged the strikers, and they made no further attempt on that particular school. Seven Schools Out.

In Manchester, school boys paraded the streets, demanding shorter hours, the abolition of the cane, and payment of monitors. Profiting by example of their elders, the boys held a general meeting, presided over by a boy of twelve years.
