The Picnic Season.
 BY M. L. RANN.

A picnic is a place where people meet to perspire in unison and make the acquaintance of several new varieties of insect life.

A picnic is always held at some damp and inaccessible spot, where there is an abundance of sharp-visaged ants which are continually dropping down somebody's neck and interrupting the conversation with unwholy remarks.

No picnic is considered a real success unless it bumps into a wet thunder shower just as the fried chicken is about to be disseminated. It is a melancholy sight to see a lean, hungry picnicker comfortably seated in a large, resilient pool of rainwater and trying to spear the elusive olive with a tin fork, while all about him are the prostrate and water-soaked forms of the baking powder biscuit, the scalloped potato and the angel food cake.

Picnics are usually crowned by a series of free baths, just as the low descending sun imparts its last frugal bluster. These baths are usually taken in some river which is the home of the highly-perfumed carp and has a bottom liberally ornamented with clam shells and the yielding vertebrae of the pollywog. They are also taken in native costumes which make a thin man look like a bas relief of a toasting fork.

Some people are so fond of picnics that they take along self-dumping hammocks and stay in the woods until nature has given them the rich, golden sheen of a summer sausage. After a man has grown a beard which would stand up and fight a disc harrow to the ropes, he will return home with a deep sense of satisfaction and a series of parallel ridges embossed by the vindictive mosquito.

Picnickers who sleep in a tent are seldom disturbed by anything except the inhuman habit of snoring in three colors or by the predatory pinch bug, which is liable to land on a protruding toe just when everybody has dozed off.

HOOKED IN THE UDDER.
 But Douglas's Egyptian Liniment Saved the Injured Quarter.

When one of your animals is so badly hurt that there seems little or no chance of healing the wound then is the time to use Douglas's Egyptian Liniment.

Mr. G. P. Ashbaker, of Evans Mills, N.Y., says: "While driving cows to pasture one of them was hooked in the udder, the horn penetrating so far that the milk ran out in a stream. Every one I talked with, said there was no chance of saving the injured quarter. But I decided to try Egyptian Liniment. I sprayed this liniment into the wounded udder and after three applications, she lost no more milk, and the wound healed so nicely that it's almost impossible to find the scar. I believe there is nothing equal to Douglas's Egyptian Liniment for cuts or sores of any kind."

Be wise—Keep Douglas's Egyptian Liniment on the premises. Price, 25c. at all Dealers. Free sample on request. Douglas & Co., Napanee, Ont.

Mr. Dawe's Venture.

Mr. R. Dawe, son of the late Capt. Charles Dawe, to whose venture in the schooner "Jewel," the Telegram referred yesterday, is enthusiastic over the prospects for a profitable voyage. The "Jewel" is a pretty little schooner of 22 tons, has a powerful gasoline motor and is equipped with the best possible outfit for fishing on the Labrador. She carries a foresail, mainsail and jib and her accommodations are of the best. On reaching Horse Hr. a crew of fishermen will be shipped, and the vessel will proceed to the outer edge of the fish. These are the grounds frequented by bankers each fall and which are generally the location of large schools of cod. Hand liners will be used and when a trip is secured it will be brought to port to be cured. As stated yesterday, if the voyage is a success, Mr. Dawe will fit out a fleet of small craft next year to engage in this fishing.

A Nocturnal Prowler.

Some time after midnight Wednesday a young lady residing on Barter's Hill who was reading in her bed room heard the sound of stealthy steps outside, and raising the curtain a little discovered a man peering through the window. She quietly told her father and brother who investigated but at their appearance the fellow took to flight, going down over the meadow land at the rear of Barter's Hill. He made good his escape. A few night previously members of a family were awakened by hearing some person walking about outside their house. He repeatedly tried the doors and windows but when he saw that the inmates of the house were aroused he left the neighborhood quickly. One or two policemen on the back streets is a great necessity.

A Sad Case.

At the home of Mr. E. French on King's Road, Wednesday, a pleasurable event occurred in the birth of a little daughter, but the joyousness of the event was yesterday changed to extreme sadness when the mother died. Mrs. French was only 34 years old and is mourned by a husband and infant daughter. Mr. French has the sincere sympathy of his many friends in his sad bereavement.

Petty Thefts.

Late Wednesday night or early yesterday morning the glass in the windows of two small stores on New Gower Street was broken and goods like cake, fruit, etc. stolen. Three young chaps who were up all night were seen on that thoroughfare by residents, and the police think they had something to do with the thefts. Their names will likely be secured today.

Personal.

By recent exchanges we learn that the Central Labour Union of Norfolk County, Mass., at a recent largely attended convention elected Mr. John Fitzhenry to the position of Chairman. Mr. Fitzhenry was also elected a Delegate of the Union. He is a well-known citizen of St. John's who left here a number of years ago and who made good in the land of Uncle Sam.

Here and There.

TO BE DOCKED.—The Lake Simcoe will go on the dry dock next week for repairs.

FOXES.—Your attention is directed to the sale of pure blood black breeding foxes in another column.

Hon. John Harris left this morning to spend a few days at Placentia, where his family is staying.

WINDOW BROKE.—On Wednesday night a drunk passing along Duckworth Street fell through a pane of glass in Mr. W. Cranford's store. It was valued for $1.50, but who broke it is not known.

ORGANS.—The famous Needham Organ—sold in tens of thousands of homes. Eight styles to select from. Call and see them. CHESLEY WOODS, Sole Agent for Nfld.—June 25

DOING THE CITY.—After the arrival of the Stephano last evening a large number of tourists were about the city. They visited the Nickel shows, parks and other places of interest, viewed the Cathedral and various churches, and the restaurants and some stores open did a good trade owing to their presence.

BROTHER ILL.—Councillor J. Mullaly had a wire yesterday from Omaha, Neb., stating that his brother Mr. William Mullaly has been dangerously ill for some time past. Mr. Mullaly has been away for nearly 30 years and was for a while Alderman of Omaha. He has been ordered to Excelsior Springs, Kansas City, to be treated.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—As Messrs. Joseph Judge and Peter Joy were standing opposite the Post Office at 8.30 last night under the gas lamp there a section of the big glass globe covering the light fell at their feet with a crash. Had it descended on their heads they would have been severely cut as the glass was thick and heavy.

Ocean Race.

On her recent trip from New York to Halifax and while en route to St. John's, the Red Cross steamer Stephano had an exciting and interesting race with another tourist boat called the Trinidad, belonging to the Quebec Steamship Company. The latter ship left the American port an hour in the lead but after the two days journey the Stephano reached Halifax ahead of her. The contest was witnessed and enjoyed by the passengers on board.

Track Clearing.

All yesterday and last night a big gang of men under Roadmaster Ferguson were at work on the railway line near Woodstock getting the derailed cars to the track. When the engine left the rails Brakesman Kelly besides Engineer O'Neill and the firemen were in the cab but fortunately escaped without injury. Crib work is being put up to get the engine on the track.

Makes Hair Grow.

McMURDO & CO. HAVE IT.

All drug stores sell SALVIA, and it is guaranteed to grow hair or money back.

The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of. If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it cannot be long before the spot appears.

The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, the Great American Hair Grower, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed.

And remember, it destroys the Dandruff germ, the little pest that saps the hair that should go to the hair on the roots.

SALVIA is sold by first-class druggists under a positive guarantee to cure Dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back. A large bottle costs 50c. The word "SALVIA" on every bottle.

Sailors' Union.

Some fifty seamen of St. John's met in the Longshoremen's Hall last evening and after some discussion a Sailors' Union was formed. Delegate Woods of the Firemen's Union addressed the body on unionism generally. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. Cullen; Vice-President, T. Murphy; Treasurer, T. White; Secretary, J. Koolery. Mr. W. J. Higgins was appointed Solicitor.

Stephano Here.

The S. S. Stephano, Capt. Clarke, 5 days from New York via Halifax, arrived in port at eight o'clock last evening. While en route from Halifax adverse weather was met. The ship was stopped in the fog off this port all day yesterday. She brought one half cargo, a large mail and 155 passengers, nearly all of whom are round-trippers.

PERSONAL NOTES.

To-day Mr. Harry Sharpe severs his connection from the employ of Hon. G. Knowling. Harry intends spending two weeks in town and some time with his people at Bay Roberts, leaving during the month of September to enter McGill University, Montreal, to study medicine. We wish him every success.

Coal is again scarce in town, and in a few days, unless some arrives quickly, none will be procurable. Better to have a shortage now than in the winter.

The hay crop is small and so as to help people to keep their cattle over the winter, the Agricultural Society are approaching the Government with the request that the duty be taken off hay and straw for this one season. A very reasonable request we should say.
