

New Films for Summer Snapshots!

The Kodak Store window is worth more than a passing glance just now, give it your whole attention as you go by.

It is full of roll films, and is a silent reminder to you to buy your roll films THERE and NOW.

You often lose a good "snap" by not having a roll of film on hand. Prevent this by keeping half a dozen in reserve, and get them at the Kodak Store.

Commissioner Resigns.

COUNCILLOR MULLALLY GIVES UP OFFICE.

It is with great regret that citizens will hear that Commissioner Mullally who for so many years has served on the Municipal Council, giving of his best for the city's welfare, has been compelled by ill-health, to tender his resignation. The strenuous times which Mr. Mullally passed through when as he was acting Mayor he had to cope with the unemployment situation caused his health to be impaired, and he now finds that a trip abroad is necessary. Mr. Mullally will undoubtedly take with him the best wishes of the general public. The following is the correspondence which passed in connection with his resignation:

St. John's, August 20, 1921.

Sir R. A. Squires, Premier.
Dear Sir:—I desire to thank you for your kind remembrance of me in your selection of City Commissioners. I regret that, now that my health is impaired, due indirectly to my exertions in connection with that institution, I am forced to leave this country for at least a while, in the hope of regaining my former health. I feel that I should tender to you my resignation of the position to which you so thoughtfully appointed me. I therefore enclose the said Commission and ask your acceptance of same. Yours sincerely,
J. J. MULLALLY.

Prime Minister's Office,
St. John's, Newfoundland,
August 20, 1921.

J. J. Mullally, Esq.,
P. O. Box 172, City.

Dear Mr. Mullally:—I regret very much indeed to be in receipt of your letter informing me that you were leaving town on Monday and tendering your resignation as a member of the City Commission.

Certainly in view of your intended long absence there is nothing for me to do but to accept your resignation.

Schooner Wrecked.

HEROIC CAPTAIN STANDS BY.

The schooner "Alice C." went ashore at Chance Cove on Saturday and is now a total wreck. Her captain, who stayed on board to the last saved himself by swimming ashore in a heavy sea. Early Saturday afternoon an unknown schooner was reported ashore at Chance Cove by the wireless operator at Cape Race. Immediately upon receipt of the message, the tug Ingraham was despatched to the scene of the wreck and discovered the vessel to be the "Alice C." Carew, Master, bound from St. Pierre to Cape Broyle with salt. The Ingraham saw no chance of saving the schooner and returned to port yesterday. The "Alice C." experienced dense fog all through the trip and on Friday evening land was sighted and the vessel was brought to anchor off Chance Cove. After night fall the S.E. wind freshened somewhat and Captain Carew ordered his crew ashore, he himself staying on board. The wind continued to increase in fury and late Friday night the little vessel with its lone occupant snapped its chains and drove ashore striking hard on the rocky beach, and fast settled down. Throughout the night the skipper clung to the rigging with the sea sweeping the doomed craft from stem to stern, and no visible means of escape came until daylight when his shipmates could return with the vessel's boat. Saturday morning conditions were if anything even worse and when daylight broke the brave shipper saw there was only one chance and diving into the treacherous sea successfully reached the shore. The "Alice C." was a vessel of 40 tons register and was owned by the Captain.

St. Francis Garden Party

A SPLENDID SUCCESS.

Delightful weather, a record crowd, first class catering, excellent music—all blended to make St. Francis' Garden Party at Outer Cove yesterday a surpassing success. Several thousands of all classes and creeds visited the exquisite grounds, so beautifully adorned by nature itself, and were amply repaid for their kindness by the hearty welcome they received. Vehicles of all kinds, from the powerful motor car and there were motor cars in profusion) down to the good old "square body" rolled up from 3 to 6 o'clock, with the result that the various tables and the very generous contributions of the parish of St. Francis without any assistance of mechanics from St. John's or elsewhere; and the work has gone steadily on—quietly but effectively—and stands to-day an eloquent testimony of their generosity, a splendid monument to their faith, and a striking example of their skill.

To the "Acushla Ma Chree" Band is due much praise. Their rendering was excellent—each and every thing possible to oblige—and a better type of the courteous and obliging would be difficult to find. To all who patronized the party (and there were thousands present) Father O'Callaghan and parishioners of St. Francis avail of this opportunity to tender most grateful appreciation and gratitude. The result surpassed easily their most sanguine hopes.

Among those present were the Rt. Rev. Mr. MacDonnell, V.G., Very Rev. J. J. McGrath, P.P., Very Rev. J. P. Pippy, P.P., Very Rev. J. Rawlins, P.P., several Christian Brothers, M. P. Cashin, K.B.E., Jas. F. Parker, Esq., N. J. Vincombe, M.H.A., and very many other prominent citizens. The table d'hôte was worked indefatigably, a special word of praise is due, and their efforts were entirely successful. To all many thanks; and grateful that also to all who by their donations materially assisted to bring about the splendid result achieved.

On Official Visit.

WARSHIP HERE FROM BERMUDA.

After a run of five days from Bermuda, H.M.S. Wistaria of the North Atlantic squadron arrived in this port yesterday morning and berthed at Shea's premises. She is commanded by Capt. H. Champion. The Wistaria is here on an official visit and will remain for the greater part of the present week. She will then leave for the northward and will call at Bonaville and Hare Bay, en route to Montreal via the Straits of Belle Isle. During the war the Wistaria, which was built in 1916, was engaged in mine sweeping operations.

An Escape and Capture.

An inmate of the Lunatic Asylum who escaped from the Institution early Saturday morning and visited his home in the city, where he procured a quantity of food and personal belongings, eluded all attempts at capture until late in the evening when he was found on Pennywell Road. The unfortunate man is suffering from religious mania, and his sudden appearance at his home gave a surprise to his family.

Note of Thanks.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir:—On behalf of myself and family, I beg to extend through the columns of the Evening Telegram to Drs. Scott, Dwyer and Ivany, also Messrs. O'Flynn and Parsons of Lady Northcliffe Hospital, Grand Falls, my sincere and hearty thanks for their very successful services, devoted and generous treatment of our boy Paul during his very serious illness. Words fail me to express my thanks for all their kindness and attention to him, not only while in Hospital, but also before his removal thereto, and I trust that Doctor Scott and his excellent and efficient staff may be long spared to administer affairs at Grand Falls Hospital.

Thanking you for the insertion of this note in your esteemed paper, I beg to remain,
Sincerely,
P. F. DWYER.

Susu in Port.

The Susu arrived from the Fogo Coastal Service at 12.30 a.m. yesterday, bringing the following passengers:—Mrs. W. Joseph, Miss Mott, Mrs. J. Diamond, Miss M. Bennett, Mrs. J. H. Bennett, T. W. Abbott, A. Sanson, M. H.A., C. Woolfrey, Miss Janes, Miss H. Walbourne, Miss M. Walbourne, A. Hart, Mrs. M. Lodge, Mr. Mott, Miss Diamond, Rev. W. Murphy, W. H. Christian, Mrs. J. Newhook, Miss L. Edgar, F. C. Snelgrove, Miss E. Darrow, A. Darrow, Mrs. M. Darrow, Mrs. Thorne and child, Mrs. K. Bradley and 2 children, C. Winsor, E. Blay, Wood, Capt. E. Bishop, G. Pollard and 10 in steerage. The ship reports having had fine weather throughout the trip. She brought a full freight of fish and oil. The fishery trip along the coast is very poor, fishermen having great difficulty in procuring bait.

Naval Prize Money.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir:—As I was first to make a suggestion through the columns of your widely circulated paper as to some recognition being given Messrs. Rodgers and Doherty for their services rendered in connection with the struggle for our Naval Prize Money, I consider it my duty to reply to the letter of Mr. Barrett which appeared in your issue of the 15th inst. in which he stated that the fact that Messrs. Rodgers and Doherty were not given the aid of the R.N.R.'s was a far greater compensation than a mere financial mite. That may be so from Mr. Barrett's point of view, but if they did succeed what compensation would Mr. Barrett be prepared to offer them for their loss of time. Now, Mr. Editor, for the information of all who are not fully conversant with the matter, I will give you just this one fact. On Monday last at an interview with the Prime Minister the following questions were asked and answered:—

Mr. Doherty.—Did I understand you to say Sir that the Imperial Gratuity has been placed to the credit of the country?

The Prime Minister.—"Yes."

Mr. Doherty.—Then, Sir, if we did not start this tick, in due course the Prize Money would also be placed to the credit of the country?

The Prime Minister.—"Exactly."

Mr. Doherty.—Then, Sir, it's a good thing we started, for I want my Prize Money and I am sure the rest of the R.N.R.'s wants theirs.

The Prime Minister.—"Well you will get it now."

That goes to show Sir that if the question of Prize money had not been taken up by some party we would never have got it and as ex-skipper Rodgers was the first to take it up and stuck at it a crown of thorns and in the end accomplished his aims with the help of Mr. Doherty and with the few R.N.R.'s who were in the city to back them up, I think the least we can do is to show the public in general that we are not going to let their services go unrecognized.

Permit me, Mr. Editor, to make another suggestion. That is for some competent R.N.R. men to take the matter up with Messrs. Rodgers and Doherty's behalf, as they took up the matter of Naval Prize Money on our behalf. Call a meeting of the R.N.R.'s, appoint a committee to represent the R.N.R.'s and interview the paymaster commander of H.M.S. Briton, and see if arrangements can be made to have, say one dollar deducted from every man's cheque to be paid to Messrs. Rodgers and Doherty for services rendered in connection with the struggle for our Prize Money and if Mr. Barrett does not wish to give a dollar, let him give fifty cents and I will give one dollar and fifty cents. Thanking you for space, I am, Sir,

Yours truly,
T. WALSH, EX-R.N.R.

Doing His Bit.

(From the Boston Transcript.)
A Canadian speaker was making an earnest appeal for forest conservation.

"What are our people doing to stop this fearful waste of the country's precious lumber supply?" he demanded.

"Is there any one here who is doing anything at all?"

Gravely a little man in the audience rose from his seat.

"What! Is there really one?" exclaimed the orator. "And what, may I ask, are you doing to save our forests from depletion?"

"I," said the little man solemnly, "always use a toothpick twice."

Western Notes.

Census enumerators J. Willis and Eli Manuel have finished their work about Channel, Port aux Basques and contiguous places.

Considerable flour is being imported by steamers and schooner at the various ports on the South West Coast, upon which the iniquitous sales tax is being paid without question.

Two well known residents of Channel, in the persons of Capt. John H. Pike, who retired from active marine work four years ago, and Wilcox Vardy, Harbor Master, Port aux Basques, are very ill, both being obliged to remain indoors.

The fishery about Channel is improving, and there is a good supply of squid bait. The fall catch promises to be a good one, but unfortunately the price is so low as scarcely to make the voyage worth while. Only one firm at Channel is buying "green," the rate being one dollar per cwt. from the knife, taken up in trade. Five dollars per quintal, on account, is being paid for dry.

Kearney Sells Hats That Fit

--and Fits Hats that Sell.

Maybe it's because he gives so much study to hats and men; because he sells many more hats than any other store. But principally because he has at his back the World's three Best Hats:

Christy, Stetson, Borsalino

that makes correct hat choosing certain. Sometimes customers get confused seeing so many styles—want them all, yet can buy only one. But there Kearney is at their side to help and advise. "That's the one for you!" he says—and he's never wrong—never!

Let's Remember Sambo Jackson.

(From the Fitchburg Sentinel.)

When you next eat ice cream, consider the debt you owe to Sambo Jackson, negro pastry chef in a New York tavern, who gave the world its first dish of ice cream 105 years ago this month. For years Sambo had a monopoly on the manufacture of ice cream because he kept his process a closely guarded secret. All that is definitely known about his discovery is that it was an accident, and a happy one. It might not be a bad idea to erect a monument somewhere to Sambo. And while about it, surround his memorial with others to the men who gave us the other things that help to make summer endurable—artificial ice, lemonade, refrigerators and fans.

Not in Vain.

(From the Philadelphia Ledger.)

A tall, gaunt individual of the known in some parts of the South "poor white trash," was ordered the judge of a certain police station.

"You are," said His Honor, "a judge of profanity in a public place."

"I reckon I did it, Judge," said the negro, "but I was tryin' to be my boss."

"But you should know better than to take the name of the Lord in vain," said the judge.

"It wasn't in vain, Judge," said the negro, "because I was tryin' to be my boss."
