Guelph Evening Mercury

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 20, 1874

Town and County News

The auction sale of Mr. John McNeill's furniture takes place to-morrow. See advertisement.

MOUNT FOREST CATTLE FAIR.—The Examiner says that there was a small turnout of cattle at the fair last week, but the demand was brisk, and prices good.

A. O. F.—The Foresters of Toronto have for the past months been making preparations for a grand fete to take place in that city shortly. The Hamilton Foresters propose having a grand excursion to Toronto and taking part in it. What about our A. O. F.'s?

WESLEYAN SOCIAL.—On Thursday evening a social will be held in the basement of the Wesleyan Church. The evening's entertainment will consist of readings, recitations, music, &c., and a very interesting time may be anticipated. Admission ten cents.

FIRE IN ORANGEVILLE.—A fire, supposed to have been caused by a defective chimney, broke out in the Albion Hotel, Orangeville, on Tuesday morning last, and destroyed property to the extent of about $5,000. The hotel was completely burned, as was also an adjoining house owned by Mr. A. Lennox. A building owned by Mr. Bacon, of Toronto, barely escaped destruction.

NEW WESLEYAN CHURCH.—Last week the masons commenced operations for the erection of the new Wesleyan Church. It is expected that the masonry will be completed in September, and the basement ready for occupancy by Christmas. Messrs Pearson & Son have the contract for the masonry, Mr. S. Boulton, the carpenter work, Mr. Wm. Day, the plastering, and Mr. Grinnington, the painting. The entire cost of the building and lot will be about $29,000.

PLEASURABLE.—Several members of the congregation of St. Andrew's Church, Mount Forest, of which Rev. M. M. MacNeill is pastor, besieged the manse and presented their pastor with about $80. They were cordially received and warmly thanked; and the Examiner blandly adds that the rev. gentleman also "thanked the brass band" which happened to drop in. Rev. Mr. Cobbs, of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the same place, was made the recipient about the same time of a handsome study gown and slippers by the Ladies' Aid Society.

BURDWELL'S PANORAMA.—This famed Panorama opens this evening in the Town Hall. It gives a series of splendid views of Ireland and the Franco-German war, covering nearly 40,000 feet of canvas. The paintings were taken from original drawings and sketches, and they will be explained in descriptive lecture. The entertainment will be enlivened by Irish comic songs, Dutch socialities, &c., by Mr. W. Burdwell, and some popular songs, operatic and other selections by Mrs. Anna Burdwell, the whole forming a most pleasing and instructive entertainment. Seats secured at Day's Bookstore.

THE QUINTETT CONCERT.—The entertainment given by the Mendelssohn Quintette Club on Saturday was attended by an appreciative audience, and the programme was satisfactorily carried out. Mrs. Weston did full justice to "Sognata" an Italian master-piece that contains many difficult passages, while the rendering of "Emeralds" and "The Little Maid of Arcadia" were deservedly encored. The quartette in B flat, and the selection from the "Midsummer Nights' Dream" by the quintette, were executed with the boldness and agility that are characteristic of this galaxy, while the violin solo by Carl Hanna, Rudolph Henig's performance on the Violoncello, Edward Heindl's flute solo, and Thomas Ryan's imitation of the Gnomon Kleague on the clarinet, deserve special mention. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing these artists again shortly.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—On Saturday night, about half-past 12 o'clock, an attempt was made to gain an entrance into the grocery store of Mr. J. Schofield, near the Great Western Station. Two or three shutters were taken down, a pane of glass cut out, and the party supposed no doubt that the way was clear to thoroughly ransack the premises; but he was doomed to disappointment, for no sooner did he endeavor to enter through the pane than there was a "crash" among the glass and earth-ware, which aroused the parties on the opposite side of the street, who at once cried out "Who's there?" The burglar immediately made off, remaining no doubt over the uncertainty of every thing earthly. It was fortunate that the party was interrupted, as there was money enough in the till to repay the burglar for his trouble and risk. Two rather suspicious looking men were in the store shortly after nine o'clock on Saturday night, whose looks Mr. Schofield did not like. It is possible they are the parties who sought to break into the store. The inmates of the house were not aware that anything was wrong with the store till they were informed of it early on Sunday morning. It is evident that all the burglars have not yet left town, and our citizens should be on their guard to have their premises well secured, and their valuables all safe.

BURGLARY IN ELORA.—The Observer says that on Friday the 10th, the house of Mr. Alex. McIntosh was broken into in his absence, and a silver watch, a pair of his wife's prunella gaiters, and several other things stolen. The burglars had entered by a back window and had opened the door from the inside. A suspicious looking girl having been seen a short distance from the house by Mr. Wm. Smith who lives near Mr. McIntosh, these two gentlemen came to Elora on Saturday morning and found her at Mr. Biggar's Hotel. They procured a search-warrant from Mr. Barron J. P. and had her taken in charge. Part of the property was found on her person. She was tried before Justice Gordon and Barron, and the evidence goes to show that she was only an accomplice in the matter. A man who had been seen on the same day was the principal actor, he entering the house and handing the articles out to her. She stated to the constable that he lives near Elora. He has not yet been heard of and it is altogether likely that he will keep out of the way. The girl was sent down to Guelph. The girl's parents live in the Village of Elora and it seems she evidently intended to make a profession of stealing, as she had been at the work in several places along the road from that village.

SURPRISE PARTY AND PRESENTATION.—At the close of the winter term the pupils attending the dancing class of the Misses Rhemmie determined to get up a demonstration creditable alike to themselves and their respected teachers. Accordingly they formed a surprise party, which invaded the premises of the Misses Rhemmie on Friday night, and took full possession of the house. The inmates were summoned to attend, and Mr. Hugh Walker in the name of the pupils presented the Misses Rhemmie with a handsome silver ice pitcher and butter cooler as a mark of the respect entertained for them, and in appreciation of the very pleasant evening was spent by all who participated in the proceedings. The articles were purchased from M. D. Savage.

By a stupid blunder the name in the above notice in Saturday's issue was put Rennie. We regret the mistake, and in justice to the Misses Rhemmie, give it to-day correct.

THE FIRE ON FRIDAY.—Mr. Wm. Horning, Assistant Chief of the Fire Brigade, rushes into print in the Herald of Saturday, and because of some discrepancy between his calculation of the time when the first alarm of the fire was given on Friday, and the time the engine began to play, and our version of it, seeks to make the public believe that we intentionally sought to do this valuable body of men an injustice. Mr. Horning never laboured under a greater mistake. Had he come to us we would gladly have given him all the explanation or correction he desired, as our only object in giving news is to give the truth, and accord fair play to all parties. Mr. Horning, however, from the tone of his letter, seems to be like others whom we have met, who when they find anything in a paper which concerns them, and which does not exactly tally with their views, at once attribute all sorts of bad motives to the writer, and imagine there is a conspiracy to damage them in the eyes of the public. His insinuation that we intentionally sought to do the fireman an injustice is as unfounded as it is uncharitable. With regard to Mr. Horning's letter to the Herald, and what does not exactly tally with their views, at once attribute all sorts of bad motives to the writer, and imagine there is a conspiracy to damage them in the eyes of the public.
