KINTORE.

One of Missouri's Oldest Residents

Kintore, April 15.-Mrs. Oram, one of Nissouri's oldest residents, passed away on Saturday evening, April 5, at about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Oram was born in the county of Cavanagh, Ireland, in th year 1804. In 1820 sne came to the city of Montreal, then being but 16 year of age. It was there she met and married the late Thomas Hughes, who, with her, shortly moved to London killed by a falling tree, leaving with two boys, Richard, late of Kintore, and John, of London township, father of Mrs. Will. McMurray, of con. 8. Nissouri, and Dr. Hughes, of Thorndale. In 1825 Mrs. Hughes was married to James Oram, of London ownship, and was soon again left a widow, with three children-David, the eldest, who died a number of years ago: William, who resides in East London, and is a leading member of the Methodist Church, and her only daughter, married to Mr. Charles Smith, with whom the mother has lived for the last 40 years. Mrs. ingston, M.P., of Baden, and the ily of the late John Livingston, of the Methodist Church all her life, and longed to go. A short burial service was held in the church by Rev. S. Knott, who based his remarks on I. Corinthians, xiii., 12. Her grandsons acted as bearers to carry her to the grave.
