SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS.

The trophy and prizes for the road race under the direction of the Rugby Club will be on exhibition in the window of Clark's cigar store on Dundas street, near Richmond. The prizes are well worth competing for. The boys are training hard for the event, and a most successful race is anticipated.

"Eddle" Siever, the former Londoner, is going to break into the big league again next year, having been purchased by Detroit. He has been pitching very consistent ball this year, and had a good streak of luck. When he's right, none of the left-handers have much on "Eddie." May he stick for a long spell.

Cricket seems to be having some sort of revival also. They are beginning, now that the hay is all in, to organize in the small towns. Even Woodstock is going to have a match with the Barracks boys. Aylmer is also talking about a game. Aylmer ought to take the game up, as they used to be something fine at the Englishman's delight. Forest also had a team worth while. Get together, and come in and visit us. We will do you

That there is to be but one Rugby team in Toronto is shown by the meeting on Monday night. They look to have a good bunch of material on hand, and they ought to be well up in the race. They think they can beat the Tigers, but they will have to hurry. Here is the Globe's account of the

There was a great meeting of the joint Argonaut and Toronto teams last night at the Chop House, and the greatest interest and enthusiasm was shown by the players and supporters of the clubs who were present. That a fast team picked from the combination will be placed in the field is a surety, and the Tigers will have to look to their laurels. These officers were elected: President, R. McKay,; vice--'president, Dr. W. G. Wood; manager, W. A. Hewitt; treasurer, A. C. Bedford-Jones; secretary, George Benjamin; committee, H. C. Hoyles, J. P. Haynes, H. W. Houser, E. W. Hamber and M. Cochrane, Among the players present were "Babe" Reynolds, Snively, P. Jermyn, formerly of 'Varsity; Gray, Fellowes, Cochran, Houser, L. Morrison, Trimmer, Hoyles, J. Hynes, Aikens, Hamber, McPherson (formerly of McGill), McFayden (formerly of Guelph O. A. C.), and many others.

They are beginning to pick out the best players in both the big leagues on the other side, and one writer's lineup, and it looks about right, has the

Some of the American papers are publishing cuts of Barney Oldfield as he looks in the hospital after his recent auto accident. As a fate teaser, Parney gets the medal. Get your floral tributes ready, as the afore-mentioned Barney will need them if he follows the game much more.

Havers James always seems to have a sensation in his string, and this year Maud Keswick is making them look about. She stepped a mile easily the other day in 2:051/2, and will no doubt tear a few seconds off that yet. at the London races early this spring, but did nothing to warrant anyone picking her out as a sensation. She is a big mare, with good speed, but did not look quite the fast one she is. James can bring the speed out, there's no denying that. Look at Geary, too.

For the first time since the memorable Buffalo Derby, Oxford won a race Monday. He was very bad after that terrific duel he and Tongorder, Dyment's colt, had in that event. Tongorder has not been right since. It is reported that he is rounding to nicely, and will face the barrier this fall again. Dyment's string fell off very badly after the Jockey Club meet. In fact all the Canadian strings have done poorly this year. They will get good

"Knotty" Lee and "Chancer" Elliott, of Brantford, have been doing some talking, and told a Toronto Telegram man the other day about the plans of his little league. Next year, they are going to branch out, and be international. Guelph, Galt, London, Hamilton, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Lockport, N. Y. These, with St. Thomas, Woodstock and Brantford, would make quite a league. They would seek protection under the national agreement. Ingersoll will be "canned." As far as London is concerned, there is no better ball town in Canada today, but the class of ball would have to be firstclass to tempt them to indulge that league. They play good ball in our City League, and some fast stuff would have to be shown them, to get them in on that deal. Smoke up, Knotty. Use pill No. 16.

Men who are training for any contest whatever, such as boxing, rowing, football, hockey, baseball, etc., be introduced into London-road racing, always place great reliance on running as a means of getting into shape, and no matter what other part of the training is left out, their trainers always see that they run from five to ten miles a day.

This sport has been practically dead in London for years, and there has been very little done in that line since the
