is late, of course, more hay will have 8s 9d; fine, 15s. to be fed to the stock, which will reduce the supply on hand by a good many tons, and those of the buyers who have been predicting ten-dollar hay may be disappointed. Sales are moderately brisk for what is offered, and prices range from $12 to $13 50 per ton, according to quality. Straw is scarce at present, as there was not much offered for several days. Prices will likely be from $7 50 to $8 per ton for any that is offered this week.

Butter and Eggs-Contrary to the expectations of the dealers, the prices of butter remain steady at 27c to 28c for choice pound rolls, or 26c to 27c for crocks. Eggs are decidedly firm at 16c per dozen for crates and basket lots. Potatoes-The market is firm at $1 retail. The dealers are of the opinion to $4 50; dairies, $6 to $6 20. that there are not as many potatoes in the country as was the case at this time last year.

Apples-Trade is slow in this line, and prices are steady at $1 75 to $2 25 per barrel or 50c to 85c per bag. Poultry-Prices are easier. Turkey's sold at 12c per pound alive, or 13c to 15c dressed; the latter price for hen turkeys. Old fowl brings 9c per pound alive, or 10c dressed. There have not been many spring chickens pigs, $3 25 to $5 10; bulk of sales, $5 50 to so far: sales are made at 75c to $1 per Dressed Hogs-The colder weather Dressed Hogs—The colder weather to $6 30; yearlings, $6 25 to $6 90; lambs, has stimulated trade a little. Prices $5 75 to $7 50; westerns, $5 75 to $7 60. ranged from $8 25 to $8 75 per cwt. Live Hogs-The price paid here on Monday was $6 25. The buyers talk of slightly lower prices for next Monday's shipment. Small pigs are selling at $5 to $6 per paid for pigs 6 to 8 weeks old.

Butchers' Meat-Beef is firm at $7 to $9 per cwt.: prices are likely to remain firm until the middle of June Veal sells at $5 50 to $7 50 per cwt. Spring lambs, $5 50 to $6 50 each; yearlings, 13c per pound.

Hides and Wool-There is no change in prices here, but there will likely be an advance by the 1st of May,

The wool market is in bad shape at present; in fact, it is most unsatisfactory to both the seller and dealer. As one dealer puts it, we don't know where we are at, as there is no inguiry, and we simply have to wait until there is a turn in the market.

After the ceremony nearly 60 invited guests partook of a dainty supper. The beautiful and costly presents showed the high esteem in which the young couple are held both in Detroit and this city. Mr. Burr is well-known to many in this city, and he and his happy bride carry with them the best wishes for a happy and prosperous future of a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Burr took the night train to Detroit and will visit Chicago and other points of interest and will be at home to their friends after May 15 at 10571/2 Wabash avenue, Detroit.
