how garbage should be disposed of until taken away.

Mr. Brazier also attributes much of the trouble to lack of co-operation on the part of the citizens. The garbage men are instructed that where garbage and ashes are not ready for collection, in proper condition, they are to notify the householder. Generally this results in the garbage man being told to mind his own business. If a rebuke of this nature brings a similar reply, a complaint is immediately made to head-

PRIDE OF EAST CIRCLE

CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

A local man was given the option of spending four months in jail or paying a fine of $400, after having been convicted in police court this morning on a charge of bootlegging.

Roy Cutts and Cyril Henry, two government agents, swore that at 11:30 o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, December 28, they had gone to a home on Horton street. Accused answered the door and asked, "have you come for a 'crock'?"

They replied in the affirmative and were admitted to the house, Defenting the doctor has under consideration a Novel Scheme.
