reproaches launched at the Mother Country for not settling these questions with ironclada. The Mother Country is in daily peril both of a Russian and a French war; she is besides weakened internally by Irish sedition, which Canadian Legialatures have done their best to foster by hyporritical resolutions of sym-pathy with dismion, passed for the purpose of capturing the Irish vote. She will do all that her diplomacy, now thoroughly well re-presented at Washington, as well as at West-minster, can do but it is idle to expect of her anything more. We contribute nothing to her armaments, hor do we allow her any privileges of trade.
