for Bridgetown is once more being actively discussed, and it is quite probable that this lishment of the industry. A little timely and a proper exhibition of interest by the Town Council and the Board of Trade, will block. place the matter beyond the peradventure stage and secure an enterprise which will employ a large staff of laborers and be an important factor in the development of the town. An experienced and practical man, who is thoroughly acquainted with the ins and outs of the business, as conducted in the great shoe manufacturing centre of New England, proposes to risk his own money, to the extent of twenty-five per cent. of the required capital, in the venture; the citizens of the town will be asked to subscribe the blance; the corporation to make a few reasonable concessions to encourage the business in its infancy stages. Probably the total amount which our citizens will be retailed amount which our citizens will be stage. stage and secure an enterprise which will called upon to subscribe will not exceed five thousand dollars and this amount ought to and shoe industry has a record for solidity. by any other branch of staple manufactures.

Drawing its supplies largely from the country, it is exactly suited to a country town.

-Quite an accident occurred on the D. A. R. Wednesday night, about two miles east of Upper Clements. The Yarmouth accommodation, in charge of Con. Fred Moseley and driver Ned Murphy parted her train on a heavy grade, four cars of lumber jumping the track and piling the lumber in every direction, and also making a sad mess of the "flats." Twenty five cars were attached to the train when she left Yarmouth and a special engine in charge of driver Sime Riley was sent down and attached as a tail ender at Weymouth. When the train parted those behind were not acquainted with the fact, only when the piled up cars brought it to their notice. Dick Grimm and Con. Al Herbert got a tevere shaking, and the wond r is that no one was killed. A wrecking train arrived from Kentville and c'erred the track in time for the running of the express trains.—Spectator. Wedding Bells. LIPPARD - BALCOM. Hailoween with all its attendant mystery and traditions brought much joy to the home of Mrs. Phebe Balcom, 29 Pearl st, Monday evening. The cause of the happiness was the marriage of Mrs. Balcom's daughter Lucy. M., to William C. Lippard, Nashua. The caremony was performed in the marlor at M., to William C. Lippard, Nashua. The ceremony was performed in the parlor at 7.30 o'clock by Rev. U. S. Davis and was witnessed by friends and relatives from Medford, Woburn, Cambridge, Manchester and South Framingham. Palme, chrysanthemums, ferns, and houquets of cut flowers adorned the room. The Episeopal marriage service was used. The bride was becomingly attired in white mousselain with lace trimmings and carried a bunch of chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Lydia W. Balcom, a sister of the bride was attired in white mousselain over pale blue. Fred W.
